

II. Composition of the HAA Board

The HAA Board of Directors consists of the following:

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The president, four vice presidents, secretary, and treasurer of the Association, the four immediate past presidents, and two at-large members make up the Executive Committee.

DIRECTORS

Directors for Clubs & SIGs (three-year term) are nominated by the leaders of the Clubs & SIGs and appointed by the Executive Committee.

Directors for the Graduate Schools (three-year term) are appointed from each of Harvard University's graduate and professional degree-granting Schools with the approval of the Executive Committee.

Directors of Harvard College (three-year term) are nominated by Harvard College and Radcliffe College alumni and class leaders and appointed by the Executive Committee.

Director for the Harvard College Class Secretaries and Treasurers (two-year term) appointed by the Association of Harvard College Class Secretaries and Treasurers with the approval of the Executive Committee.

Elected Directors (three-year term) are elected by alumni to represent the alumni as a whole.

Past President Directors include all former presidents of the Harvard Alumni Association.

DIRECTORS EX OFFICIO

The president of Harvard Magazine, Inc., the chairpersons of the Harvard College Fund, and the chairpersons of the Association's standing committees are appointed by the organizations they represent.

COMMITTEE CHAIRS

Committee chairs (two-year term) are appointed by the president and the executive director to lead the various committees.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Committee members (three-year term) are appointed by the executive director of the HAA. Committee members are asked to advance the work of the committees.
