NETWORK OF SUPPORT, PATH TO SUCCESS

Harvard's comprehensive advising network helps guide undergraduates through their academic and residential experience. By supporting these never-ending advising resources, Harvard alumni become partners in helping students grow to be global citizens and future leaders.

Services available to:

- Freshmen
- Sophomores
- All Students

Office for Undergraduate Research

200+ Peer Advising Fellows

200+

Harvard College Women's Center

Accessible Education Office

275+ Sophomore Advisers

275+

Office of International Education

House Masters

Tutors in the Houses

Office of Student Life

Proctors

Harvard College Writing Center

30% more freshman academic advisers since 1997

Harvard Alumni Association

The Yard

Houses

...and Beyond

Freshman Dean's Office

Advising Programs Office sponsors 50–70 pre-concentration advising events

Freshman Advisers

Concentration Advisers

Sophomore Advising Coordinator

Harvard Alumni Network, Clubs, and Shared Interest Groups

Concentration changes have decreased significantly with fewer than 20% of students switching

Allston Burr Resident Dean

Office of Career Services

Bureau of Study Counsel

Harvard Chaplains

HARVARD
Faculty of Arts and Sciences