DEAR FRIENDS,

Welcome to our special network of Harvard College Fund volunteers! We are proud to join you in this indispensable role. Our collective efforts—from the communities we build, to the peers we contact, to the stories we share—make an impact on the lives of faculty and students every day.

Alumni and parent ambassadors raise critical resources that help open doors to a Harvard education, expand extracurricular and research programs, strengthen the House experience, and so much more. We have an opportunity to accomplish great things together, and we look forward to supporting and celebrating your important work.

Thank you for your time, your energy, and your partnership in shaping the future of Harvard.

SUPPORTING HARVARD’S FUTURE

Harvard inspires the risk taking and exploration that transform the lives of students and faculty. Extraordinary things happen in classrooms and laboratories, on stages and in concert halls, on athletic fields and online. They happen in Harvard’s Houses, where living and learning are intertwined like nowhere else. And they happen thanks to Harvard’s commitment to expanding access for our extraordinary students, who come from every corner of the world.

THE HARVARD CAMPAIGN FOR ARTS AND SCIENCES

In October 2013, we launched a comprehensive campaign to ensure that Harvard continues to be a place of discovery for people leading positive change in the world. The Campaign will secure necessary resources to fuel Harvard’s aspirations.

Your volunteer fundraising efforts are at the heart of the Campaign’s success. Thank you.

HOW DOES YOUR WORK CONNECT TO THE CAMPAIGN?

Through your own gift commitment and by spreading the word to your network, you invest in Harvard’s foundation and in new ideas. You promote innovation. You strengthen the Harvard experience for today’s students and for future scholars.

You support these ventures when you partner with the Harvard College Fund. Through your volunteer efforts, you give the leaders of Harvard College, the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, and the Harvard John A. Paulson School of Engineering and Applied Sciences the agility to test ideas, push boundaries, and respond to opportunities.

STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY, SUSTAINING HARVARD

Whether you are fundraising for your class reunion campaign, for a specific program, or for a current Campaign priority, you are not alone in your efforts. Thousands of alumni and parents make up the volunteer community every year because they are energized by Harvard’s mission and compelled to make a difference, just like you.

When you volunteer, attend events, and give through the Harvard College Fund, you help create a stronger network and inspire increased support. We encourage all alumni to engage with us and the Harvard Alumni Association, which offers networking programs, reunions and class-based activities, clubs and shared interest group programs, public service projects, continuing education programs, travel programs, online services, and alumni events around the world.

Together, the Harvard College Fund and the Harvard Alumni Association rely on volunteers to champion ways to stay close to Harvard. By encouraging conversation with alumni leaders and connecting alumni to students and campus experiences, you are strengthening the enduring relationship that enables our success.

JUST A FEW EXAMPLES OF DONOR IMPACT

• FINANCIAL AID
Last year marked the 10th anniversary of the industry-leading Harvard Financial Aid Initiative, which helps to bring students like Justus Uwayesu ’18, a survivor of the Rwandan genocide, to Harvard. This program is not fully endowed and requires ongoing support. We are able to offer life-changing financial aid because of you.

• DUNSTER HOUSE
In September 2015, we celebrated the opening of the renewed Dunster House. We could not invest in our infrastructure and reimagine the student experience for the 21st century without your generosity.

• BIG DATA
Harvard was able to invest in high-performance research computing, paving the way for faculty to make major breakthroughs in renewable energy technology. Your support fuels innovation.

• OUTSTANDING FACULTY
During the devastating West African Ebola outbreak in 2014, Harvard computational geneticist Pardis Sabeti and her research team mobilized to sequence and analyze 99 Ebola virus genomes from Sierra Leone. The result? They quadrupled the amount of genomic data available on Ebola and aided in response efforts to diagnose and contain the disease. Philanthropy supports faculty who are changing our world for the better.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLE: WE ALL HAVE SOMETHING TO GIVE

Alumni and parents who give back to Harvard continue a time-honored partnership across generations. A gift is an investment in Harvard’s mission and aspirations, an endorsement of its leaders, and a meaningful way to demonstrate appreciation—for your experiences, opportunities, and friendships.

Every gift made through the Harvard College Fund has an impact on life at Harvard today. To sustain our excellence, we must work together to increase the number of donors who contribute to Harvard every year. We encourage every member of the Harvard community to join us in our efforts.
GIFTS OF ALL SIZES MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE AT HARVARD

In 2014–2015, more than 34,000 individuals contributed through the Harvard College Fund.

92% OF THESE GIFTS WERE UNDER $1,000 = $9M COLLECTIVELY = $179M ENDOWMENT EQUIVALENT*

HARVARD FUNDRAISING BASICS

Successful fundraising starts with making a connection. Time and time again, we have found that sharing why you support Harvard inspires others to do the same. We encourage you to think about what Harvard means to you and why you have chosen to dedicate your time and resources. Is it because you received financial aid? Is it the friendships you made with your Housemates and teammates? Is it that seminal class in computer science that changed your life? Perhaps knowing that you are supporting new research and promising scholars inspires you.

Whatever your reasons, please share them with your peers. Ask how Harvard impacts their lives or about a favorite memory. These recollections can prompt conversations that lead to meaningful support. Your personal outreach is what helps us attain our shared goals and increases the number and size of gifts each year.

Many alumni make donations at the end of the calendar year in December or at the end of Harvard’s fiscal year on June 30. Keep these dates in mind as you plan your approach and use them to encourage your peers.

We ask that you complete your assignments within an agreed-upon time frame. If you can’t complete an assignment, please let your Harvard College Fund officer know.
HERE ARE SOME GUIDELINES TO HELP YOU GET STARTED:

1. PLAN YOUR APPROACH

› Think about why Harvard is important to you. Why do you give?

› Brush up on the background and interests of your peers. You will receive biographical information to help prepare for your conversations.

› Be confident. Most alumni are happy to contribute and simply need to be asked. You don’t need an answer for everything—questions can help you understand an individual’s philanthropic interests and motivations.

2. HAVE A CONVERSATION

› Share your story. Explain why you give to Harvard and why you believe a gift can make an impact.

› Be direct. “Will you join me?” is often the most powerful question you can ask.

› Discuss gifts already committed by peers and ask for a specific amount. (Example: “Can we count on your help? Would you consider a gift of $_____?”) Harvard College Fund officers will provide you with contextual materials such as a gift scale or box chart, which are especially helpful when discussing larger gifts.

› For reunion campaigns and parent solicitations, share that pledges of $5,000 or more may be paid over time (up to five years).
Listen carefully and don’t expect an immediate commitment, especially for larger gifts.

Inquire about matching gifts. Ask whether a donor qualifies for a corporate matching program.

3. FOLLOW THROUGH

Agree on next steps and maintain contact.

Send a thank you note that includes the specific pledged or proposed gift amount.

Let donors who make multiyear pledges know that they will receive confirmation of details and periodic reminders from Harvard.

Follow up with your staff contact once you have secured the pledge or gift. Harvard College Fund staff will handle all administrative details and ensure a smooth experience.
