TRAVELS 2016

PASSAGE OF LEWIS & CLARK
Columbia & Snake River Cruise Aboard American Empress
with Castle McLaughlin, Peabody Museum Curator of North American Ethnography
August 13–21, 2016
DISCOVER THE PRISTINE GLORY OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST—A REGION OF UNPARALLELED NATURAL BOUNTY AND SPELLBINDING BEAUTY—where majestic waterfalls plunge down mossy cliffs, and powerful rivers flow through deep, awe-inspiring gorges edged by steep canyon walls, rugged high desert, and mountains swathed in dense emerald forests. From Clarkston to Portland, follow Lewis and Clark’s epic passage along the Columbia and Snake Rivers aboard American Empress, the largest and most elegant riverboat west of the Mississippi. Your adventure begins with a hotel stay in Spokane, Washington’s second-largest city. Then board the grand American Empress at Clarkston, where rich Native American culture springs to life at the nearby Nez Perce National Historical Park. Explore Sacajawea State Park, the site of Lewis and Clark’s 1805 campsite, and admire the lovely scenery and small-town charm of The Dalles. Head ashore at Stevenson, Washington, your gateway to the famed Bonneville Dam and Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum. Before concluding your journey in Portland, the “City of Roses,” visit the oldest city west of the Rockies, Astoria, blending splendid Victorian homes and maritime relics with delightful cafes and shops.
CASTLE MCLAUGHLIN is a curator of North American ethnography at the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology at Harvard University.

As a social anthropologist with research interests in politics and political economy, art and visual culture, North American Indians, and the American West (both past and present), she has conducted fieldwork on Native American ranching, wild horses, and the contemporary Native American art market. Her recent work has focused on the Lewis and Clark expedition and bicentennial. She curated the exhibition From Nation to Nation which featured the Peabody Museum’s collection of Native American objects collected by Lewis and Clark, and published a comprehensive study of the collection in Arts of Diplomacy: Lewis and Clark’s Indian Collection (2003).

Castle will be joined by Mary Malloy, an associate at the Peabody Museum and professor of maritime studies at Sea Education Association. Mary is the author of four books of maritime history and received the Petra T. Shattuck Excellence in Teaching Award in 2010.

FOR DETAILED ITINERARIES, VISIT ALUMNI.HARVARD.EDU/TRAVEL
Saturday, August 13
SPOKANE, WASHINGTON
Your journey begins with a one-night stay at the Davenport Hotel, a four-star landmark hotel located in the heart of Spokane.

Sunday, August 14
SPOKANE/CLARKSTON, WASHINGTON
Morning at leisure. Board the graceful American Empress in the afternoon and celebrate the journey ahead with a special evening dinner cruise. The riverboat overnights in Clarkston. (B, L, D)

Monday, August 15
CLARKSTON, WASHINGTON
Founded in the 19th century as a way station for travelers bound for the Idaho goldfields, Clarkston is famed as the gateway to Hells Canyon, North America’s deepest river gorge. In the morning, stop at the Nez Perce National Historical Park. Then explore more native culture at Lewiston’s Nez Perce County Historical Society and Museum. (B, L, D)

Tuesday, August 16
TRI-CITIES (RICHLAND)/ SACAJAWEA STATE PARK, WASHINGTON
Sacajawea State Park occupies the former site of Ainsworth, a 19th-century railroad town. The land also holds unique history—in 1805, Lewis and Clark and their Shoshone Indian guide camped here during their fabled expedition. Nearby, you’ll find Washington’s Red Mountain AVA (American Viticultural Area), a small wine-growing region sprinkled with award-winning wineries. Visit Sacajawea State Park and its Interpretive Center, the Franklin County Historical Society and Museum, and the Hanford Reach Interpretive Center. The riverboat overnights in Richland. (B, L, D)

Wednesday, August 17
RIVER CRUISING/ THE DALLES, OREGON
Take in glorious landscapes as you leisurely cruise past the confluence of the Snake and Columbia Rivers. Transit the highest lock in the United States, the John Day Dam. The riverboat overnights in The Dalles. (B, L, D)

Thursday, August 18
THE DALLES, OREGON/ STEVENSON, WASHINGTON
Welcoming visitors with its picturesque backdrop of forests, orchards, and high desert, The Dalles occupied a strategic transfer point for pioneers heading to the Willamette Valley. Today’s Hop-On Hop-Off motor coach makes stops at the Original Courthouse Museum, the Fort Dalles Museum and Interpretive Center, the downtown shopping district, and the beautifully designed Columbia Gorge Discovery Center and Museum. Enjoy a special afternoon reception at Sunshine Mill Winery, a state-of-the-art boutique winery housed in a 130-year-old abandoned wheat mill. The riverboat overnights in Stevenson. (B, L, D)

Friday, August 19
STEVenson, WASHINGTON
This morning, delve into compelling regional history at the Columbia Gorge Interpretive Center Museum, and visit the Bonneville Dam, the first dam built on the Columbia River. In the afternoon, embark on your included premium tour of Multnomah Falls. Enjoy beautiful views as the Old Scenic Highway, known as the “King of Roads,” leads you to Crown Point, home to the much-photographed Vista House. Your scenic tour continues to a collection of sparkling waterfalls, including Multnomah Falls, a 611-foot-tall natural treasure. (B, L, D)
Saturday, August 20
ASTORIA, OREGON
Experience the small-town charm of Astoria, the oldest city west of the Rockies. This “Little San Francisco” is bursting with character, from its steep hillsides blanketed in sprawling Victorian homes to its downtown studded with cafes and whimsical shops. Then follow in the footsteps of America’s most famous frontiersmen on an included Lewis & Clark premium tour. Stop at Middle Village and Station Camp; gain insight into the expedition’s challenges and successes at the Lewis and Clark Interpretive Center; admire magnificent views of the Pacific Ocean from atop Cape Disappointment; and visit Fort Clatsop, a rugged shelter that was home to the explorers during the cold winter months. (B, L, D)

Sunday August 21
VANCOUVER, WASHINGTON/
PORTLAND, OREGON
Disembark in Vancouver, Washington, and transfer to Portland for your return flight home. Transfers to the Portland airport are an additional cost. Flights should be scheduled to depart from Portland after 10:30 AM. (B)

POST-CRUISE OPTION
PORTLAND & OREGON’S WILLAMETTE VALLEY
August 21–23, 2016
$629 per person, double occupancy
$879 per person single occupancy (subject to availability)

From its marvelous culinary scene and eclectic neighborhoods to its extraordinary public gardens, Portland is truly the pearl of the Pacific Northwest. Accompanied by an expert tour guide, discover the best of Oregon’s vibrant cultural hub on a customized city walking tour. Then set out on a full-day tour that takes in the famous Willamette Valley, one of the world’s premier wine-producing areas. Admire resplendent pastoral scenery and savor acclaimed wines while visiting three unique wineries, where you’ll taste the region’s bounty through delightful wine and food pairings. Accommodations for two nights are in the four-star Benson Hotel in downtown Portland.

---

PREMIUM CHOICE TOURS will also be offered in many ports of call for an additional charge.

All port times are approximate. Itinerary, hotel, and shore excursions are subject to change.
