ABOARD M.V. TERE MOANA

WITH LEO DAMROSCHE AND JOYCE VAN DYKE

May 6—14, 2016
HARVARD STUDY LEADERS

Leo Damrosch, Ernest Bernbaum Professor of Literature, Emeritus, spent his boyhood in the mountains of the Philippines, after being interned with his parents during World War II, and afterwards grew up in Maine. Educated at Yale (B.A. summa cum laude, 1963), Trinity College, Cambridge (Marshall Scholar, first class honors, 1966), and Princeton (Ph.D., 1968), he taught in the English departments at the University of Virginia (1966-83), University of Maryland at College Park (1983-89), and since 1989 at Harvard where he is now a Research Professor. He has been awarded a Harvard College Professorship in recognition of excellence in teaching, and the Petra Shattuck Teaching Prize from the Harvard Extension School, where he continues to teach courses on the Enlightenment and humor. Leo’s most recent books are Tocqueville’s Discovery of America (2010) and Jonathan Swift: His Life and His World (2013). He also wrote a biography, Jean-Jacques Rousseau: Restless Genius, a 2005 National Book Award Finalist for nonfiction and winner of the Winship/PEN New England Award for nonfiction.

Joyce Van Dyke, Lecturer at the Harvard Extension School, has taught Shakespeare for many years in the Harvard Extension School where she also received the Petra Shattuck Teaching Prize. She has a B.A. from Stanford and a Ph.D. from the University of Virginia. After beginning her career teaching Shakespeare at Wellesley College, she yielded to the lure of playwriting herself, eventually earning a degree from Boston University’s playwriting program while continuing to teach Shakespeare. Her plays, including Deported/a dream play, The Oil Thief, and A Girl’s War, have received numerous professional productions, grants, commissions, and awards, including the Elliot Norton Award and Gassner Award. She is a MacDowell Colony Fellow, Huntington Theatre Playwriting Fellow, and a two-time recipient of playwriting grants from the Massachusetts Cultural Council.

SUNDAY, MAY 8
GOLFO ARACNI, SARDINIA/ COSTA SMERALDA/ BONIFACIO, CORSICA, FRANCE
Sardinia’s Costa Smeralda (Emerald Coast) features remote seaside villages, elegant villas, a rugged landscape rising from exquisite white sand beaches, and azure waters plied by sleek luxury yachts. Anchor at Golfo Aranci near Porto Cervo, a haven for celebrities. A panoramic tour features the well-preserved granite Nuraghe Albuucciu, one of the Bronze-Age defensive fortresses unique to the island of Sardinia.

Dock below the ancient town of Bonifacio, overlooking the sparkling harbor from sheer white limestone cliffs at the southern tip of the island of Corsica. Often referenced by historians as a site portrayed in Homer’s Odyssey, this beautiful port’s fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect. Transfer by small train for the walk through the incredibly picturesque medieval citadel and Old Town. Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empeureurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic Church of St-Dominique and the famous 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important national monument by the French, built in the Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles on the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix. Stroll through the Mazarin district and Old Aix and enjoy the famous Cours Mirabeau, a classic, grand boulevard lined with plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses. Nearly three millennia of maritime heritage thrive in Marseilles, the 2013 European Capital of Culture and a natural port

Visit the Cathedral of St Sauveur, considered a national monument by the French, overlooking the Ligurian Sea. Discover the spectacular nuances of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by walking paths that offer marvelous views of the charming coves, hidden beaches and terraced vineyards that produce the famous dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely afternoon on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this legendary dragon-slaying saint, stroll the pedestrian-only lanes or sip a cappuccino on the terrace of an outdoor café.

Pisa’s famous Piazza del Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcases the legendary Leaning Tower, the impressive 11th-century duomo and the largest baptistery in Italy. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a promenade for pedestrians, and its 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important symbol of the city.

One of the oldest human settlements in the world with archaeological sites dating to the Lower Paleolithic period, Nice remains rich in its traditions and centuries-old culture.
