Any changes or updates to this guide will be featured in the Class of 2015 email newsletter:
Dear Class of 2015,

We have just overcome one of the most tremendous hurdles of our lives—four years of HUDS dining. Kidding! College was a wild ride, to say the least. It was full of psets, papers, mentors, friends, parties, and late nights at the Kong. From freshman seminars to senior theses, intro meetings to leadership roles, and life on the Yard to our Houses, we have been challenged—challenged to think deeper, ask questions, and enhance our understanding of others. As a Class, we have traveled across campus and around the globe, broadening our own horizons and putting lessons into practice.

Inspiring, talented, intelligent, traveled, thoughtful, kind, friendly: these are just a few words that pop into our heads when we think about the phenomenal individuals who make up our Class. We laughed together; we cried together; we have become a cohesive unit, a family—and now it’s time for our paths to diverge. The idea that this is the end is frightening, and we may not know what to expect, but here’s our big bang theory. In a few weeks our unit will spread to cover nearly every section of the globe. We’ll have friends in New York, Taiwan, Georgia, and Brazil. Classmates will be taking on a variety of challenges like doing field research, running their own businesses, continuing their education, or traveling the world. Harvard, as we know it, will no longer be confined to the five-mile radius in Cambridge, but instead it will lie in the long-distance phone conversation with your freshman year roommate or a quick coffee date with your former teammate. Harvard is all of us, and we take a little bit of it with us wherever we go. But for now, before our big bang on Commencement, before we shoot off and expand like stars in the Milky Way, let’s go out with a bang.

With this in mind, your Senior Class Committee and the Harvard Alumni Association have organized the events outlined in this booklet as a capstone to four years of hard work, perseverance, and excitement. From roller coasters and soirées to talent shows and athletic competitions, these events will surely be some of the most fun and memorable of our time here. Take advantage of these opportunities to bond with friends and classmates and create memories that you’ll talk about not just the morning after but also at our 5th, 25th, and 50th Reunions.

And no matter where you find yourself after Commencement, always remember that Harvard—especially the Class of 2015—will be there for you as a source of support and community. Stay connected with one another and with our Class, and remember that our website (harvard2015.com), class newsletters, regional Facebook groups and mailing lists, and local Harvard Clubs and Shared Interest Groups will be great sources of news, events, and connections in your new homes.

If you have any questions about Senior Week, please don’t hesitate to contact any of us on the Senior Class Committee. We’re here to help make this week as exciting and enjoyable as possible.

Make it a memorable week. This is our time. It’s Senior Week—do it right!

Onwards,

SENIOR DESK

Senior Desk is located at the Harvard Alumni Association (HAA) offices at 124 Mount Auburn Street, 6th Floor. Senior Desk will be open weekdays between 11:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. from Wednesday, May 6, through Wednesday, May 27 (Class Day). Please make an effort to pick up your tickets earlier in May rather than later. If you arrive on one of the last days Senior Desk is open, you can expect a considerable wait for your tickets. Get there early!

Before you pick up your Commencement Week tickets, you must complete the online senior exit survey, titled “Enrolled Student Survey.” If you are set to graduate and it has been acknowledged by your House administrator or resident dean, you will receive an email containing a unique URL that will give you access to the survey, starting May 5. The survey takes 24 hours to process, so please wait one business day before picking up your tickets at Senior Desk.

Please bring your HUID, as only you can pick up your Commencement Week tickets—no exceptions. Your family members were invited to all the Commencement Week events in a mailing sent out in March, with the option of ordering additional tickets to the Class Day Picnic; these tickets will be available for pickup at Senior Desk. Additional tickets for this event and for the Commencement Day luncheons may also be purchased at Senior Desk with cash or credit card. There is no limit to the number of additional tickets you can purchase for these events.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK TICKETING

SENIOR CLASS FAMILY RECEPTION

Tuesday, May 26, 5:30–7:30 PM
Science Center Plaza

Each senior is entitled to three complimentary tickets. Graduating seniors will require one of these tickets for entry. Additional tickets will be available at Senior Desk.

CLASS DAY PICNIC

Wednesday, May 27, noon–2:00 PM
Old Yard

Each senior is entitled to three complimentary tickets. Graduating seniors will require one of these tickets for entry. Additional tickets may be purchased in advance at Senior Desk for $10 per ticket.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

Wednesday, May 27, 2:00–4:00 PM
Tercentenary Theatre

Each senior is entitled to five complimentary tickets. Graduating seniors will require one of these tickets for entry. Additional tickets will be available at Senior Desk.

COMMENCEMENT DAY

Thursday, May 28, 8:00 AM–4:15 PM
Tercentenary Theatre

Family members and guests of graduating seniors will require tickets for admission to the Morning Exercises and the Annual Meeting of the Harvard Alumni Association (the Afternoon Program).

Graduating seniors in academic regalia do not need tickets for the Morning Exercises. Family members and guests will require tickets. The Morning Exercises are extremely crowded; consequently, tickets are limited to a maximum of four per graduating senior, and additional tickets will not be made available.

Tickets for the Afternoon Program are limited to five tickets per senior. Graduating seniors will require one of these tickets for entry. Additional tickets may be available at Senior Desk as Commencement approaches.

All tickets will be available at Senior Desk.

NOTE: Tickets to the Class Day Exercises, Morning Exercises, and Afternoon Program allow admission into Tercentenary Theatre but do not guarantee seats. Seats cannot be reserved and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The sale of tickets for the Class Day Exercises and Commencement Exercises is prohibited.
DIPLOMA PRESENTATION
CEREMONIES AND LUNCHEONS

Thursday, May 28, noon–2:00 PM
Undergraduate Houses

Between the Morning Exercises and the Afternoon Program, each House holds a diploma ceremony and luncheon. Tickets are not required for the ceremony but are required for the luncheon. Complimentary luncheon tickets for the graduate and two guests will be provided; additional tickets are $15.50 per guest and can be purchased at Senior Desk in advance or at the checker's desk on Commencement Day (limited and cash only-day-of). For more information about the diploma ceremony or luncheon, please contact your House administrator.

HARVARD CLASS OF 2015
SENIOR WEEK EVENTS

Senior Week Tickets

All Senior Week tickets and bundles are available at the Harvard Box Office, located in the Smith Campus Center (or online through ofa.fas.harvard.edu/cal) and are SEF eligible. Tickets must be prepurchased and/or reserved.

THE OFFICIAL 2015 BUCKET LIST
10:00 am–3:00 pm
Widener Steps
Rain or shine
Tickets: Not required
Dress: Activewear

And you thought there were only three things you needed to do before you graduate! Compete in teams in the fourth annual Senior Scavenger Hunt. Win points by completing tasks on “The Official 2015 Bucket List.” The winning team will earn eternal glory and exciting prizes! More information will be available on harvard2015.com/seniorweek closer to the date.

SENIOR TALENT SHOW
8:00–10:00 pm
Sanders Theatre
Tickets: Free (available at the door)
Dress: Casual

Come watch your fellow classmates shine on stage during the Senior Talent Show! Enjoy performances of all kinds and celebrate the creativity and diverse talents of our Class. Get ready to laugh and reminisce with throwbacks to the Freshman Talent Show. Tickets are required, but they are free and available at the entrance to Sanders Theatre on a first-come, first-served basis on the night of the event.

Thursday, May 21

CAMP HARVARD
4:00–6:30 pm
The Quad Lawn
Rain or shine
Tickets: Not required (but bring HUID)
Dress: Camp casual

Escape the “in tents”-ity of Senior Week festivities with some throwback summer camp activities on the Quad Lawn. Unwind with live music, cold beer, and festive food with your fellow seniors! This event is free and open to all members of the Class of 2015. Please note that dinner will be served only at Camp Harvard; all dining halls will be closed this night.

LAST CHANCE DANCE

Don’t miss out on your “last chance” to connect with the Class of 2015. Tickets are available at the Harvard Box Office for $30. This includes cover, snacks, and bus transportation back to campus (you are responsible for transportation to the club). A cash bar is available at the venue. To reach the club using the T, take the Red Line to Park Street, then walk south on Tremont Street.

To enter the club, you must be 21+ and have a valid ID (state ID or passport)—no exceptions.

Non-alcoholic beverages available. Alcohol 21+.

Friday, May 22

CHOOSE YOUR OWN ADVENTURE
Time, ticket price, and dress vary based on selected excursion

Pick from a lineup of different outings in Cambridge, Boston, and beyond designed to cater to the expansive and diverse interests that characterize the Class of 2015. An email outlining how to reserve your spot for the destination of your choosing will be sent out in advance, so be on the lookout!
LOOKING BACK, LOOKING FORWARD
8:00–9:30 PM
Fong Auditorium, Boylston Hall
Tickets: Not required
Dress: Casual

Join your classmates for an evening of reflection and anticipation, personal stories and big ideas. Half of this event will encourage students to “look back,” sharing thoughts on their experiences over the past four years. The other half will focus on “looking forward” as students present up-and-coming topics within a wide range of fields, from the state of the U.S. government to health care, from the tech industry to the music industry. Stop by to share your thoughts, enjoy some snacks, or just listen!

Saturday, May 23

CHILLIN’ ON THE CHARLES
3:00–5:00 PM
Leverett’s McKinlock Courtyard and Charles River Banks
Tickets: Not required
Dress: Casual

Enjoy one of your last lazy senior spring afternoons along the Charles with lawn games, music, and good company. This is a free event—just bring your friends and a beach towel to unwind before the craziness of Commencement and the fun yet to ensue at the Senior Soirée!

SENIOR SOIRÉE
9:00 PM–1:00 AM
Science Center Plaza Tent
Rain or shine
Tickets: $40 (entry, snacks, and refreshments)
Dress: Outdoor cocktail party

Make the most of the last night of Senior Week! This soirée will make for a festive evening that you and your fellow seniors won’t forget! There will be dancing, snacks, and refreshments. This event is for seniors only and will sell out. Limited tickets are available at the Harvard Box Office. Non-alcoholic beverages available. Beer and wine 21+.

Please direct all questions about Senior Week events to team@harvard2015.com.

FAQS ABOUT SENIOR SPRING AND COMMENCEMENT WEEK

I WANT TO WALK AT COMMENCEMENT, BUT WHAT IS MY SENIOR STANDING?
If you want to walk at Commencement but are unsure of your senior standing, please contact your House administrator or resident dean.

WHERE AND WHEN DO I EAT DURING SENIOR WEEK?
Currier, Leverett, and Quincy are open for lunch and dinner Sunday, May 17, through Saturday, May 23:

LUNCH
Noon–2:15 pm

DINNER
5:00–7:15 pm

On Monday, May 18, dinner will be served only at the Senior BBQ, located in the Soldiers Field Athletics Area on Cumnock Fields. On Thursday, May 21, dinner will be served only at Camp Harvard, located in the Quad.
All Houses are closed for meals after dinner on Saturday, May 23.

ARE THERE SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES?
Harvard welcomes family members and guests with disabilities on Commencement Day, Thursday, May 28, 2015. Accessible seating and other accommodations for individuals with disabilities are available in Tercentenary Theatre on Commencement Day. Graduating seniors and advanced degree candidates are strongly encouraged to exchange general Commencement tickets for accessible seating tickets during May ticket distributions at Senior Desk.
Accessible seating tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis and will be distributed at Senior Desk. Harvard will make every effort to accommodate family members and guests without accessible seating tickets on the morning of Commencement; however, accessible seating is limited to two tickets per senior, excluding special circumstances, and advance planning is strongly encouraged.
The accessible seating section is located adjacent to University Hall and will be clearly marked with the International Symbol of Access.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to arrive early on Commencement Day to avoid some of the crowding that usually takes place after 8:30 a.m. Gates open at 6:45 a.m.
First aid stations and wheelchair-accessible restrooms will be located in Sever, Weld, and Thayer Halls. Please visit commencement.harvard.edu/guests-disabilities for more information.

Other Senior Week and Commencement Week activities may also be accessible depending on location. Please call the Harvard Alumni Association at 617-496-7001 or email haa_collegealumniprograms@harvard.edu if you have specific questions or needs.

AT WHICH FUNCTIONS IS REGALIA REQUIRED?
Regalia (cap and gown) is required for the Phi Beta Kappa Literary Exercises (for PBK seniors), Baccalaureate Service, and the Class of 2015 photo on Tuesday, May 26, and for the Commencement Morning Exercises and the House diploma presentation ceremonies on Thursday, May 28. Cap and gown rentals will be available for pickup May 21–28 in the textbook department on the third floor of the Coop, located on Palmer Street, during normal store hours (Monday–Saturday: 9:00 a.m.–9:00 p.m.; Sunday: 10:00 a.m.–7:00 p.m.). The Coop is also open early on Commencement Day (beginning at 6:15 a.m. on Thursday, May 28).

Seniors do not have to reserve a cap and gown, but there is a charge of $40.50 to rent regalia (cash, check, charge, or Crimson Cash are accepted). For more information, visit store.thecoop.com/coopstore/images/general.regalia.pdf.

ARE RECORDINGS OF THE COMMENCEMENT WEEK ACTIVITIES AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE?
Broadcast-quality, multiple-camera DVD recordings of the Commencement Morning Exercises and Afternoon Program are available. Class Day Exercises (Wednesday afternoon) are also available on DVD. The morning and afternoon Commencement Day recordings include commentary during the processions. Single-camera recordings of diploma ceremonies at the Houses may be available based on House.

For information about videos in Tercentenary Theatre, call Commencement Video at 617-884-6000. For information about videos at the Houses, contact your House administrator. For audio only, call Media and Technology Services at 617-495-9460.

HOW DO I GET A COPY OF THE 2015 HARVARD COLLEGE YEARBOOK?
To order, visit harvardyearbook.com and click on the Order Online button. If you have any questions about the yearbook, please email inquiries@harvardyearbook.com.

HOW DO I ORDER A COPY OF THE CLASS PHOTO?
An order form was sent to family members in the spring. You can also pick up an order form at the photo desk. The cost is $35 for the color photo, $40 for the laminated photo, and $135 framed, plus shipping and tax (where applicable).

DO FAMILY MEMBERS YOUNGER THAN FIVE NEED TICKETS TO EVENTS?
For the Senior Class Family Reception, children under five do not need a ticket. For the Class Day Picnic, where prearranged meals are served, anyone of any age who will need his or her own meal also needs a ticket. For the Commencement Exercises, children under five do not need a ticket to get into the Yard.

WHERE CAN I GET GRADUATION ANNOUNCEMENTS?
The Coop offers personalized announcements with the graduate’s name, degree, and concentration. For more information or to order, visit the Coop, go to thecoop.com, or call 800-368-1882.

The Harvard Shop, a division of Harvard Student Agencies, also offers personalized graduation announcements. For more information or to order, visit the Harvard Shop at 52 JFK Street, go to cbgrad.com, or call 800-433-0296.

IS PARKING AVAILABLE DURING COMMENCEMENT WEEK?
For the Senior Class Family Reception, complimentary parking for guests is available at the 52 Oxford Street Garage on a first-come, first-served basis. For events on Class Day and Commencement Day, complimentary parking is available at the Soldiers Field Athletics Area on North Harvard Street in Allston. For more information, visit transportation.harvard.edu/parking.

WHERE CAN I FIND THIS INFORMATION ONLINE?
Visit harvard2015.com/seniorweek or alumni.harvard.edu/collegegrad.

WHEN DO SENIORS HAVE TO VACATE THEIR ROOMS?
All seniors must be out by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 29. No exceptions!

LIFE AFTER HARVARD
All Harvard undergraduates and graduates are automatically members of the Harvard Alumni Association (HAA), a dues-free organization. The HAA offers a wealth of opportunities to stay connected to Harvard and its alumni community, as well as excellent alumni benefits, including social, educational, and networking events; online learning; volunteer opportunities; and travel-study trips. For more information, visit alumni.harvard.edu.
2015 CLASS COMMITTEE

Your Class is the heart of your alumni activity. The principal officers of the Class of 2015 are the eight class marshals, the secretary, the treasurer, the tech and media team, the 12 House representatives, and the five gift co-chairs. There are many purposes for the class organization: camaraderie, communication, fundraising, and volunteer programs. After graduation, many feel that the most important class event is Reunion, held every five years. However, between reunion years, the Class sponsors other social events in Cambridge and around the world. If you keep your address current with University Alumni Records or through alumni.harvard.edu, you will be notified of future class events. Also, remember to visit harvard2015.com for updated information about your Class.

COLLEGE ALUMNI PROGRAMS OFFICE

The College Alumni Programs office serves more than 100,000 Harvard and Radcliffe alumni and alumnae. The office oversees and develops programming to preserve and maintain Harvard traditions and to create new opportunities to connect members of the Harvard community with one another and with the intellectual capital of the University. Programming for alumni includes Harvard-Yale Weekend, the quinquennial Reunions and Class Reports, undergraduate/alumni events, and recent graduate networking events such as Welcome to Your City receptions.

UNIVERSITY ALUMNI RECORDS

To keep informed about your Class, send your address and biographical information updates to University Alumni Records (UAR) or update your information through alumni.harvard.edu/memberupdate. The UAR office can be reached by mail at 124 Mount Auburn Street, 4th Floor, Cambridge, MA 02138; by phone at 617-495-2371; and by email at aro@harvard.edu. UAR keeps several offices in the University informed of the addresses and biographical information of graduates. It is important to keep UAR current with your information.

ALUMNI EDUCATION

Learning opportunities at Harvard don’t end just because you have a degree. If you stay local to Cambridge or visit campus, we invite you to take part in a variety of learning and social experiences designed to keep alumni connected with the intellectual life of the University. These include gallery social events featuring Harvard’s world-renowned museums, a career networking series, and lectures and special presentations by distinguished faculty and alumni on everything from health care to space exploration to entrepreneurship to public service. For information on current programs, visit alumni.harvard.edu/programs-events.

In addition, the Harvard Alumni Association has curated a selection of online courses that reflect the breadth of intellectual content the University has to offer you. Find out more at online-learning.harvard.edu/alumni.

ALUMNI TRAVEL

The HAA also runs a travel-study program that allows you to continue your education while experiencing some of the world’s most interesting places. With over 80 destinations on all seven continents, choose from trips by land, rail, and cruise ship, as well as family adventures and even spring break trips for alumni and students traveling together. Harvard faculty study leaders and expert local guides bring to light the intellectual, cultural, and historical context of your destination. For information on current trips, visit alumni.harvard.edu/travel.

HARVARD CLUBS

Stretching from Prague to Los Angeles to Shanghai, the 190 Harvard Clubs worldwide welcome the participation of recent graduates. Joining a Harvard Club is a great way to meet new friends, establish ties across years and Schools, and stay connected to the University. Many Clubs have recent-graduate committees that plan social, networking, and community service activities. A number of Clubs even offer free first-year membership to the Class of 2015. Please note that the Harvard Clubs of Boston and New York City are the only Clubs with physical clubhouses, and they have unique membership procedures.

For a full list of Harvard Clubs, visit alumni.harvard.edu/haa/clubs-sigs or contact the HAA Clubs and SIGs office via email at clubs@harvard.edu.
HARVARD SHARED INTEREST GROUPS (SIGs)

Are you interested in connecting with recent graduates or other Harvard alumni around a particular student activity, affinity, or religion? Would you like to find other alumni who feel passionately about a specific profession or cultural pursuit? Are you looking to help strengthen your own community? The 50 HAA Shared Interest Groups (SIGs) connect thousands of students, recent graduates, and alumni around the world to one another and to the University through local programming, websites, social media, and a variety of HAA programs. These organizations run the gamut in terms of their interests, which range from student activity to cultural identity and from profession to religion. Examples include First Generation Harvard Alumni, Harvard Alumni in Tech, Harvard Black Alumni Society, and Harvard Alumni for Global Women’s Empowerment.

For a full list of HAA SIGs, please visit alumni.harvard.edu/haa/clubs-sigs or contact the HAA Clubs and SIGs office via email at clubs@harvard.edu.

HARVARD MAGAZINE

Harvard Magazine is published six times a year. Submit a personal update via alumni.harvard.edu/classnotes and see your news appear in the Class Notes section of the magazine. To receive the July-August 2015 issue of Harvard Magazine, which will include coverage of your Commencement, please be sure your address is up to date by visiting alumni.harvard.edu/memberupdate. Class of 2015 copies will be mailed at the end of July. For more information about Harvard Magazine, visit harvardmagazine.com.

A CAUTIONARY WORD ABOUT ALCOHOL AND IDENTIFICATION

You must be at least 21 years old in order to be served alcohol. Anyone who wishes to drink a beverage containing alcohol may do so only if he or she is able to produce a valid state- or government-issued photo ID. In compliance with the law of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the College and its agents will not serve alcoholic beverages to any student or other individual below the legal age.

Your birth date appears on your Harvard ID; however, this is not a valid ID for proof of age. Acceptable identification for age verification of Harvard affiliates is a valid state or government ID accompanied by a Harvard ID. Failure to have both of these pieces of identification will result in a request for additional forms of ID and may result in the denial of alcohol service. Seniors should carry both a valid Harvard ID and state- or government-issued ID at all Senior Week events. If you wish to drink alcohol at any of the events where alcohol will be served, you must be prepared to show your state driver’s license, a state liquor ID, or a valid passport, in addition to your Harvard ID. Non-Harvard guests must show at least two forms of ID, one of which must be a valid state or government ID. For the Moonlight Cruise and Last Chance Dance, you will need at least one of the IDs listed above in addition to your Harvard ID to be admitted. These events are 21+ (no exceptions).

No one is allowed to bring alcohol to any of the events described in this book. Additionally, the presentation of false identification is a violation of University rules and Massachusetts law. Students violating these rules will be subject to disciplinary sanctions. Because of the liability involved, any obvious or widespread violation of the regulations could result in the cancellation of subsequent events.
