Dear Class of 2019,

My name is Morgan Buchanan and I am a senior in Dunster House concentrating in human developmental and regenerative biology with a secondary in African American studies. For the last four years, I—along with the rest of you—have used this basic “Harvard Intro.” It is hard to believe we are on the cusp of entering the so-called “real world” and identifying ourselves along other axes.

The world around us has changed so drastically and yet in many ways has remained remarkably constant. Amid such a paradox, I have watched this class transform from curious, slightly apprehensive first-years navigating Annenberg and the Activities Fair to confident seniors effecting change on HoCo, in the IOP, at the Athletic Complex, and beyond. Moreover, each one of you continued to ask “Who am I outside of Harvard?” with the grace, resiliency, and humor I have come to associate with the Class of 2019.

Regardless of where life takes us after we depart Harvard Square, we will always be united under the Class of 2019 banner. Your Class Committee is excited to fill these last months as undergrads with fantastic new memories and opportunities to remember the defining moments of our College careers; after Commencement, we will work to maintain and refresh our bonds. This booklet contains the information you will need to make the most of Senior and Commencement Weeks.

I am so honored to be your classmate and wish you all the best, now and in the future.

Sincerely,

Morgan Buchanan

Class Secretary

SENIOR WEEK ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Senior Week is only for Harvard College seniors. No guests are allowed at any Senior Week event. Entry to all ticketed Senior Week events requires a valid ticket, valid Harvard University ID (HUID), and a valid government ID. Tickets bear the name of the senior and are non-refundable and non-transferable.

The Last Chance Dance is a 21+ event.

No one is allowed to bring alcohol to any Senior Week event. You must be at least 21 years old to drink alcohol at any Senior Week event. Your birth date appears on your HUID; however, this is not a valid ID for proof of age. Acceptable identification for age verification is a valid government ID accompanied by a HUID. For entry at 21+ events and for alcohol service at any event, international students should carry their passports. Failure to have both a government ID and a HUID will result in the denial of entry at 21+ events and in the denial of alcohol service at all events.

The presentation of false identification is a violation of University rules and Massachusetts law. Students violating these rules will be subject to disciplinary sanctions. Because of the liability involved, any obvious or widespread violation of the regulations may result in the cancellation of subsequent Senior Week events.

Any student who creates, distributes, or attempts to use a fraudulent ticket to enter a Senior Week event or otherwise violates the policies outlined herein may be referred to the Office of Academic Integrity and Student Conduct.

FAQs

WHAT IS SENIOR GIFT?

The Harvard experience is not possible through tuition alone, and few understand that better than College students. Senior Gift is a long-standing tradition for members of the Senior Class in which they come together to make their first gift in support of one another and future Harvard students. Senior Gift contributions through the Harvard College Fund have an immediate impact on current students and directly benefit key areas of student life such as financial aid, advising, athletics, and House life. The Senior Gift Campaign runs from Sunday, March 31, 2019, through Tuesday, May 7, 2019. You can make your gift at alumni.harvard.edu/seniorgift. Senior Week tickets can be purchased and picked up at the Harvard Box Office (Smith Campus Center, 1350 Massachusetts Avenue; except where otherwise noted), Tuesday through Sunday, noon–6 p.m., beginning Wednesday, May 8. HUID required. Tickets can also be purchased online at boxoffice.harvard.edu but must be picked up at the Harvard Box Office.

WHERE DO I GET MY COMMENCEMENT WEEK TICKETS?

Tickets for Commencement Week can be picked up at Senior Desk, located at the Harvard Alumni Association (124 Mount Auburn Street, 6th Floor; except where otherwise noted), weekdays 11:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m., from Monday, May 13, through Wednesday, May 29 (Class Day). HUID required.

You must complete the online senior exit survey, titled “Senior Survey,” before you pick up your Commencement Week tickets. Graduating seniors will receive an email containing a URL to access the survey, which opens on May 10. The survey may take up to 24 hours to process, so please wait until the next business day before picking up your tickets.

Each senior must pick up his or her own tickets in person. No tickets (allotted, free, or purchased) will be available onsite at Commencement Week events. Please make an effort to pick up your tickets early; you can expect a considerable wait during the last days of Senior Desk. AT WHICH EVENTS IS REGALIA REQUIRED?

Academic regalia (cap and gown) is required for the Phi Beta Kappa (PBK) Literary Exercises (for PBK seniors), Baccalaureate Procession and Service, the Class of 2019 photograph on Tuesday, May 28, and for the Commencement Morning Exercises and the Diploma Presentation ceremonies on Thursday, May 30.

ARE THERE ARRANGEMENTS FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES?

Harvard University encourages people with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities, including Commencement Week. If you anticipate needing accommodations or have questions about the physical access provided, please call the Harvard Alumni Association at 617-496-7001 or email haa_collegealumniprograms@harvard.edu.

Accessible seating and other accommodations for individuals with disabilities are available in Tercentenary Theatre on Commencement Day. Accessible seating tickets are available on a first-come, first-served basis and will be distributed until all tickets are gone. In order to accommodate as many family members and friends with disabilities as possible in the reserved seating area, individuals with an accessible seating ticket will be permitted to have one companion accompany them into the accessible seating section. The companion must also have an accessible seating ticket. Harvard will make every effort to accommodate parents and guests without accessible seating tickets on Commencement Day; however, accessible seating is limited and advanced planning is strongly encouraged.

Graduating seniors should submit a request for accessible seating tickets as soon as possible. Requests should be submitted at alumni.harvard.edu/accessibleseating prior to Friday, April 26. Confirmation of requested tickets and instructions for claiming them will be emailed thereafter.

The accessible seating section is located adjacent to University Hall and will be clearly marked with the International Symbol of Access. Wheelchair runner assistance from the entrance gate to the guest's seat in Tercentenary Theatre is provided as a courtesy on Commencement Day.

Guests are encouraged to arrive early on Commencement Day to avoid some of the crowding that usually takes place after 8:30 a.m. Gates open at 6:45 a.m. First aid stations and wheelchair-accessible restrooms will be located in Sever, Weld, and Thayer Halls. For information about accessible parking, transportation, or other resources, please visit commencement.harvard.edu/guests-disabilities.

Individuals will need to contact the U.S. embassy or consulate in their home countries for specific instructions on the visa application process and processing times.
