HARVARD’S COMMITMENT TO FINANCIAL AID

With the support of alumni and friends, we will continue to open the doors of Harvard College as widely as possible to students of exceptional ability and promise.

1. APPLYING
- Aid Tripled
  Harvard has nearly tripled its financial aid commitment over the past decade.
- Harvard allocates largest financial aid support in its history for academic year 2013.

2. DECIDING
- Pay No More Than 10%
  Maximum percentage of income that families with normal assets between $65,000 and $150,000 will be asked to pay.
- Need-blind and passport blind admission offered to all students.

3. ATTENDING
- The applicant pool has doubled in recent years, reaching 34,950 for the Class of 2015, in response to the expanded financial aid initiatives.
- Engineer, Artist, Teacher, Entrepreneur
  Unburdened by debt, graduates can pursue a variety of careers.

4. GRADUATING
- The average educational debt for members of Harvard’s graduating Class of 2011 was $11,780, less than half the national average.
- 100,000 College alumni can be proud that Harvard’s leading financial aid program establishes a standard against which other institutions measure themselves.

5. SUPPORTING
- Alumni can keep Harvard accessible with a gift to Harvard College.

Sources:
- Harvard Admissions and Financial Aid Office

Graphic Designed by: [Design Firm]