ATHENS TO ROME

Cruising the Mediterranean By Luxury Yacht
Aboard the 50-Cabin Emerald Sakara

September 26–October 5, 2024

With Professor Gordon Teskey
Athens to Rome—Cruising the Mediterranean by Luxury Yacht

Emerald Sakara

Join fellow alumni and friends of HAA aboard the luxury 50-cabin yacht, Emerald Sakara, for a seven-night Mediterranean cruise. This unique educational program highlights archaeological sites that are remnants of the grand civilizations of ancient Greece and Rome. Begin the program in Athens, with a special visit to the private Goulandris Museum of Cycladic Art, then embark the spectacular, new Emerald Sakara at the Port of Piraeus. Launched in 2023, this beautiful, modern vessel is designed to allow access to smaller ports not accessible to larger cruise ships.

Engage with your expert Harvard study leader and other guest lecturers through illustrated lectures and informal discussions along the way. Cruise through the Corinth Canal to see where the Oracle spoke to Greek citizens at Delphi. If you wish, go for a run on the original track at Olympia. Call at 2,700-year-old Siracusa, rich with Greek and Roman history and stay for a late departure that allows an evening stroll or sightseeing excursion. Marvel at the 3rd c. BC Greco-Roman amphitheater at Taormina and the stunning Greek Temple of Neptune at Paestum before visiting fascinating Pompeii for a glimpse into what Roman life was like before Mt. Vesuvius erupted. There will also be an opportunity to participate in an optional post-tour extension in Rome.

Study Leader

Gordon Teskey is Francis Lee Higginson Professor of English at Harvard, where he has been on the faculty since 2002. He took his Ph.D. at the University of Toronto and taught at Cornell University before coming to Harvard. He has been a Guggenheim fellow and a Visiting Research Fellow at Merton College, Oxford. In 2016 his book, The Poetry of John Milton, was awarded the Gauss Prize for Literary Criticism. Teskey has traveled and lectured extensively in Europe and has taught for some years at the Harvard Summer School in Venice.
Activity Level 3:

This is a moderately active program with considerable walking most days, often on cobblestoned and uneven terrain, and extended periods of standing. Participants must be in good health and able to keep up with the group with limited assistance from tour staff. Many historic buildings and archaeological sites do not have elevators, and you’ll occasionally encounter steps without handrails. These adventure-filled days are offset by relaxing time spent cruising at sea, with the opportunity to enjoy the ship’s amenities and the full lecture program. The Emerald Sakara has elevator service to all decks.

Participants should be capable of navigating hallways and stairs on rolling seas. Anyone with a serious medical problem, whose medical situation might be adversely affected by active travel, or who might have difficulty walking, should not consider this program. This promises to be a memorable journey, but as with all travel, a flexible attitude, a spirit of adventure, and a willingness to explore new areas will enhance your enjoyment of this program. You do not have to participate in all of the scheduled activities, except when traveling to the next destination. We are sure you will be pleased with the exciting educational program provided, but we want you to be aware of the pace and activity level.
