DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

Visit the National Museum which houses the world's leading collection of Khmer art and specifically sculptures from different periods of Cambodian history. Predominantly worked in stone, the sculptures date from both the Angkorean and pre-Angkorean eras, complimented by more recent examples of Cambodian art. RAFFLES HOTEL LE ROYAL (B, L, D)

Wednesday, January 18 Phnom Penh / Siem Reap

In the morning, fly to Siem Reap. Upon arrival, transfer to the hotel and check in. After lunch at the hotel, begin your tour of the magnificent Angkor temple complex. Visit Ta Prohm otherwise known as the "Jungle Temple" and made famous by the Lara Croft Tomb Raider film. This temple has nearly disappeared into the jungle and remains overgrown, oddly haunting and exotic. Visit to the elegant temple of Banteay Srei, the birthplace of classical Khmer style architecture located in a rural area 22 miles out of town. This small temple dedicated to Shiva was built by a Brahman in the 10th century. The famous pink sandstone structure bears a series of beautiful sculptures, lintels, pediments and friezes. It is said they must have been carved by women as the detail is too fine for the hands of a man. This gives us the origin of the Khmer name, Fortress of the Women.

RAFFLES HOTEL LE ROYAL (B, L, D)

Thursday, January 19 Siem Reap

After breakfast, visit Angkor Thom. Its 54 tower Bayon temple is an awesome sight. At first glance, it seems to be a shapeless mass of stone, but further scrutiny reveals many faces carved into the stones. These gigantic faces offer heavy, enigmatic and silent gazes through half-closed eyes, staring out from a primitive and remote time. This royal city was first built under the reign of Udayadityavarman II in the 11th century. It was destroyed when the Chams from Vietnam rose up against the Khmers and invaded and was subsequently renovated by King Jayavarman VII at the end of the 12th century. Our visit to this portion of the temple will include the Baphou, Elephant Terraces, Lepper King Terrace and Royal Place area. We will return to our hotel to relax and enjoy lunch. In the afternoon, visit the Artisan's D'Angkor workshop, which was set up to revitalize the handicraft industry of Siem Reap, including stone carving, wood carving, silverwork, silk weaving, and lacquerware. Tonight enjoy the farewell dinner at the hotel.

Friday, January 20 Siem Reap / Aloft

Visit the intricately carved Khmer ruins at Angkor Wat – truly one of the world's most impressive ruins. This temple which houses amazing architecture and bas reliefs is the largest religious building ever constructed. Believed to have been undertaken as a temple and mausoleum for King Suryavarman II at the peak of the Khmer empire in the first half of the 12th Century, Angkor Wat is the best-preserved of the Angkorian temples. Rest in your day room before, transferring to the airport to depart on your international flight home.
