TRAVELS 2017

KOLKATA TO VARANASI
India’s Ganges River aboard Bengal Ganga
December 26, 2017–January 10, 2018
The Ganges River Aboard Bengal Ganga
December 26, 2017–January 10, 2018 • 15 nights/16 days

From its source high in the mighty Himalayas, the Ganges River (Mother Ganga to the Indian people) flows 1,500 miles south and east through areas western visitors have rarely seen, connecting to the Hooghly River through Kolkata (Calcutta) before emptying into the Bay of Bengal. A vibrant, complex tapestry of religious beliefs, historical sagas, diverse architectural styles, and fascinating cultural traditions spreads along its banks.

During an 800-mile riverboat journey from Kolkata to Simaria aboard Bengal Ganga, and continuing overland to Varanasi, you will be treated to a panoply of Muslim and colonial architecture, Hindu culture, Buddhist temples, the daily rituals of village life, and the unspoiled countryside of a part of India seldom experienced by travelers.

Infused with the influences of past rulers and European settlers, rich in diverse flora and fauna, and endowed with incredibly beautiful landscapes, the Ganges represents the heart and soul of Indian civilization. An optional post-trip extension to Agra makes a compelling finale for those who have never seen the Taj Mahal.

Marvel at the colorful displays of produce in Kolkata’s markets (above). In Bodhgaya, learn about the significance of Mahabodhi Temple to Buddhists (inset).

Why travel with the HAA?

- Expert Harvard faculty and study leaders
- Over 80 destinations on all 7 continents
- Choice of land & rail, cruises, rivers & lakes, and family adventures
- Travel with fellow Harvard alumni
- Local culture, history, and cuisine at each stop
- Relationships that last beyond your itinerary

As this brochure goes to print, we have not yet confirmed the faculty study leader for this program. We intend, however, that you will be joined by a Harvard lecturer who will enhance your travel experience. You will discover that our lecturers are not only first-rate scholars and teachers but also friendly traveling companions, eager to share their insights through conversation as well as in scheduled presentations.

TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 26 & 27
Home / Kolkata, India
Depart the U.S. on an overnight flight to Kolkata, arriving on December 27. After hotel check-in, enjoy an afternoon visit to the Mother Teresa of Calcutta Center and a welcome reception with fellow travelers. Taj Bengal Hotel (R)

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28
Kolkata (Embark)
Explore colonial Kolkata, the capital of British India until 1912, including Dalhousie Square; the Writers’ Building, once the administrative offices of the British East India Company; the Kolkata Race Course; the Raj Bhavan, seat of imperial British power; and St. John’s Church. Mid-afternoon embark Bengal Ganga and depart for Kalna, traveling through areas where successive waves of European settlers established their East Indian companies. Enjoy a welcome dinner aboard ship this evening. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29
Kalna
Ride in rickshaws to the enchanting Rajbari complex, whose impressive concentration of temples include the Pratapeshwas Temple, richly ornamented with terra cotta, and the Nabakailas Temples. 108 slope-roofed Shiva temples arranged in two concentric circles. Relax aboard Bengal Ganga this afternoon en route to Matiari. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 30
Matiari
In the village of Matiari, observe master craftsmen hand-crafting the brass pots and utensils for which Matiari is known. Back aboard ship, cruise past the battle of Plassey, where Robert Clive of the British East India Company defeated the Mogul Nawabs and their French allies in 1757. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 31
Murdshidabad & Baranagar
Aboard local tongas (horse carts), ride to the Hazarduari Palace Museum to view a vast collection of antiquities including rare books, old maps and manuscripts, weapons, and European oil paintings. Also visit the Katra Mosque, built in 1723–24 by Nawab Murshid Quli Khan, and the temple complex of Baranagar, a superior example of Bengal terra-cotta art. This evening celebrate New Year’s Eve on board the ship. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

MONDAY, JANUARY 1, 2018
Farakka & Rajmahal
Today Bengal Ganga enters the Farakka lock gate and cruises through the feeder canal that connects the Hooghly River to the Ganges in West Bengal. Observe the Farakka Barrage, which regulates the flow of Ganges water into the delta shared by Bangladesh and India, as well as the diversity of birdlife that inhabits this stretch of water. In Rajmahal, founded by Emperor Akbar in 1592, explore the ruins of palaces and mosques and walk through areas where the china clay used to make fine porcelains is mined. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

TUESDAY, JANUARY 2
Cruising
Enjoy a full day of cruising, with time to relax, enjoy the continuation of the educational program, and learn about distinctive elements of Indian cooking from the ship’s chef. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 3
Bateshwarsthan
Visit the ruins of Vikramshila University, one of the two most important centers of Buddhist learning in India during the Pal Dynasty. Later cruise through the Vikramshila Gangetic Dolphin Sanctuary—where the endangered Gangetic river dolphin is protected—accompanied by some of the sanctuary’s wildlife experts. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 4
Sultanganj
Sultanganj is notable for its two imposing granite bluffs, crowned by a mosque and by the temple of Ghabinath Siva. Nearby excavations have yielded a wealth of art and architectural remains, including ancient relics such as stupas, seals, coins, and terra cotta Hindu and Buddha images. Continue to Munger along a picturesque stretch of the Ganges. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

FRIDAY, JANUARY 5
Munger
Visit the Bihar School of Yoga, established in 1963 in order to preserve yogic science by combining academic and scientific methodology with a spiritual vision. On this last evening aboard ship, enjoy the captain’s farewell dinner. Bengal Ganga (B,L,D)

SATURDAY, JANUARY 6
Simaria (Disembark) / Nalanda / Rajgir / Bodhgaya
Disembark Bengal Ganga and travel to the archaeological site of Nalanda, an ancient Buddhist monastery and one of the oldest centers of learning in India, now
After lunch in Rajgir, the first capital of the Magadha Empire, where Buddha spent many years, continue to Bodhgaya, an important and sacred Buddhist pilgrimage center.

Royal Residence (B,L,D)

Sunday, January 7

Bodhgaya / Varanasi

This morning visit the Mahabodhi Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage site in Bodhgaya where, under the “Bodhi Tree,” Gautama attained supreme knowledge to become Buddha, the Enlightened One. Continue on to Varanasi. Gateway Hotel Ganges (B,L,D)

Monday, January 8

Varanasi (Sarnath)

Take an early-morning boat ride on the river, then visit the ruins and museum at Sarnath, where Lord Buddha gave his first sermon after attaining enlightenment in Bodhgaya. This evening, celebrate your journey at a festive farewell dinner. Gateway Hotel Ganges (B,L,D)

Tuesday & Wednesday, January 9 & 10

Varanasi / Delhi / Home

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for the flight to Delhi. Relax in day rooms before boarding flights home, arriving on January 10. (B,L)

What to Expect

This is a moderately active program that is at times physically demanding and busy. Daily activities can involve up to one mile of walking at a time, uneven terrain, and stairs that may not have handrails. Participants should be fit and in active good health. Participants with medical issues and/or dietary restrictions must make them known to us well before departure, and impairments regarding mobility must be disclosed prior to booking. If you have any questions about the level of activity of this program or your ability to participate, please call Harvard Alumni Travels at 800-422-1636.

In January along the Ganges, you can expect temperatures in the low to mid-60s °F with little rain, making this an ideal time of year for a Ganges cruise. India is a destination best received with an open mind, a sense of wonderment, and a willingness to embrace the unfamiliar. It is a colorful, crowded, and cacophonous country, meant to be experienced with all of your senses and to reward your intellectual curiosity.

Optional Post-Tour Extension

Agra & Delhi

January 10–13, 2018

Depart Delhi for a visit to Agra and the incomparable Taj Mahal, completed in 1654 in memory of Emperor Shah Jahan’s wife, Mumtaz, and often described as the most beautiful monument to love ever built. Also explore Agra Fort, a UNESCO World Heritage site, a former imperial residence of the Mogul Dynasty. Return to Delhi to see the magnificent Parliament Building; the Rashtrapati, the presidential residence; and Humayun’s Tomb, one of the most beautiful buildings in this vibrant city. Relax in day rooms before boarding flights to the U.S.

Extension cost: $1,195 per person double occupancy; $300 single supplement. Complete details will be sent to confirmed participants.
Built in Myanmar in 2004 as a replica of the colonial Clyde steamers, this thoroughly modern ship has 28 outside staterooms (each 168 square feet) on two decks. Fine dining, excellent service, and aHospital and caring management team all help to make your Ganges River experience very special, and passengers often describe feeling as if they were guests on a private motor yacht rather than passengers on a cruise ship. Although all staterooms are very comfortable and roomy, most passengers prefer to spend their time outside on the deck, observing the fascinating scenes and scenery along the Ganges River. PLEASE NOTE: There is no elevator between decks on Bengal Ganga.
