NORMANDY TO PARIS ABOARD AMALYRA
Commemorating the 75th Anniversary of D-Day
With Charles S. Maier, Professor of History
June 4 – 13, 2019
On this specially timed program, arrive in France in time to commemorate the 75th Anniversary of D-Day. Spend a night in Deauville at the Hotel Le Normandy, then visit either Omaha Beach for a special ceremony or the Memorial Museum in Caen before boarding AmaLyra for a seven-night cruise on the Seine River. During your cruise, trace the rich cultural history of France with visits to Jumièges Abbey, the Joan of Arc Historical in Rouen, and Claude Monet’s home in Giverny. In Compiègne, see where the French signed a truce with the Germans in 1940, or walk in the footsteps of America’s Founding Fathers at the Château de Chantilly. Conclude with an afternoon in magical Paris.

Activity Level 2: 🚶‍♂️🚶‍♂️🚶‍♂️🚶‍♂️

WHAT TO EXPECT
Cruising aboard AmaLyra offers ample opportunities to relax, while shore excursions require a moderate amount of walking, sometimes along uneven cobblestone streets, inclines, and up and down stairs. Pack a pair of comfortable walking shoes! Early June, when the weather is mostly dry and sunny, is a fantastic time to visit France. Temperatures in Paris tend to be in the 60s and 70s °F during the day, with slightly cooler temperatures on the coast. As the mornings and evenings can be slightly chilly, we suggest that you bring along a warm sweater and jacket.

Study Leaders

Charles S. Maier is the Leverett Saltonstall Professor of History at Harvard University. He specializes in comparative 20th-century European political, economic, and social history; global and international history, including comparative empires; Cold War and European-American relations; and German and Italian national histories. He teaches undergraduate courses on modern world history, the two world wars, the European Union, and political trials and political justice.

At Harvard, he has served as director of the Center for European Studies from 1994 to 2001 and fall 2006, and as chair of the undergraduate Social Studies Program from 1991 to 1995. Together with Professor Sven Beckert he directs The Weatherhead Initiative on Global History.

Kathryn Calley Galitz is a scholar specializing in European art. At The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Dr. Galitz has organized international exhibitions on artists including Girodet, Turner, and Gustave Courbet, the last of which was awarded Best Historical Show 2008 by the International Association of Art Critics. She is a frequent lecturer and the author of numerous works on painting, including the recently published book The Metropolitan Museum of Art: Masterpiece Paintings (Rizzoli, 2016). She has traveled eight times with Travel with The Met.

Molly Warnock, an assistant professor in History of Art at Johns Hopkins University, specializes in 20th-century art and theory, with a particular focus on abstraction in Europe and the Americas. The author of Penser la Peinture: Simon Hantai (Gallimard, 2012), she has also published writings in numerous journals and exhibition catalogues. She has recently completed a second, English-language book manuscript on the Hungarian-born French painter Simon Hantai and is currently at work on a comprehensive study of the American artist James Bishop. Her lectures will focus on French modernism.
Schedule by Day

TUESDAY, JUNE 4

Departure
Depart on an overnight flight to Paris.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5

Paris / Deauville, France

Arrive in Paris and travel by private motorcoach to Deauville and the renowned Hotel Le Normandy. Gather at the hotel this evening for introductory remarks and a welcome reception.

THURSDAY, JUNE 6

Deauville / Conflans

On this 75th anniversary of the Allied invasion, travel to Pointe du Hoc, where U.S. Army Rangers scaled 100-foot-high cliffs to silence the German guns that threatened the D-Day operation. Continue to Omaha Beach to attend the commemoration ceremony at the American Military Cemetery. Alternatively, visit Caen and the Memorial Museum, which chronicles the lead-up to and consequences of World War II. Continue to the Abbaye aux Hommes, where the city’s inhabitants found refuge during the Normandy landings. The abbey’s St. Etienne Church is also the burial place of William the Conqueror. Drive to Conflans to board AmaLyra in the early evening.

FRIDAY, JUNE 7

Les Andelys

During a relaxed morning, attend a lecture related to World War II. Arrive this afternoon in Les Andelys to discover the hilltop ruins of Château Gaillard, commissioned by Richard the Lionheart in the late 12th century. A more active option will also be offered. Sample local cheeses and ciders before returning to AmaLyra. As you cruise toward Caudebec-en-Caux, the captain hosts dinner this evening.

SATURDAY, JUNE 8

Caudebec-en-Caux

Depart for Varengeville-sur-Mer to visit a private estate, Les Bois des Moutiers, where you are invited for a light lunch. This Arts and Crafts house, designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens, sustained significant damage during the war and has since been lovingly restored. Alternatively, see the ruins of Jumièges Abbey, a Benedictine monastery founded in the 7th century, and tour the still-active St. Wandrille Abbey. Or admire the paintings collection at the Musée des Beaux-Arts André Malraux in Le Havre, a seaport city devastated during the Battle of Normandy and rebuilt in Modernist style by Auguste Perret. Return to AmaLyra for lunch. Attend an onboard lecture as you cruise the Seine River.

SUNDAY, JUNE 9

Rouen

Discover this medieval city on a walking tour. See the cathedral, a masterpiece of High Gothic architecture and a favorite subject of Monet, and the Place de Vieux Marché, to visit the Joan of Arc Historical. Return to the ship for lunch or enjoy free time in town. In the afternoon visit the art museum or attend a discussion about the legacy of the war with a panel of journalists. You may wish to dine ashore this evening or remain on the ship.

MONDAY, JUNE 10

Vernon

Depart from the town of Vernon for Giverny and Claude Monet’s home, which remains largely unchanged since 1926. See the colorful gardens that were an inspiration for many of his paintings. You will also visit the nearby Museum of Impressionisms, which explores this important artistic movement and its legacy. A lecture will be offered as you cruise to Conflans during the afternoon.

TUESDAY, JUNE 11

Conflans

Today excursions will be offered to Compiègne, Chantilly, or Auvers-sur-Oise. In Compiègne, visit the site where the armistice was signed to end World War I. Years later, in 1940, the French signed a truce with the Germans in the same place. You will also see the memorial at a former WWII-era internment camp. Alternatively, discover the Château de Chantilly, where some of the Founding Fathers were received by the Prince of Condé. Enjoy a tour that includes a walking visit of the palace and gardens.

FOR DETAILED ITINERARIES, VISIT ALUMNI.HARVARD.EDU/TRAVEL
the 17th-century formal gardens by Le Nôtre, the impressive library, and masterpieces by Raphael, Poussin, and Corot. Or follow in the footsteps of Vincent van Gogh and other painters in charming Auvers-sur-Oise. Attend the captain’s gala dinner tonight.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12

Paris

Following a relaxing morning cruise, arrive in Paris at lunchtime. At the golden-domed Hôtel des Invalides, visit the Army Museum, with its impressive collection of photographs, uniforms, weapons, and documents related to the First and Second World Wars. For art lovers, another option will be a special guided tour of the Musée de l’Orangérie, which houses masterpieces by Monet and his contemporaries. Or meet with a representative from the U.S. Embassy to discuss Franco-American relations, past and present. You may wish to dine ashore in Paris this evening.

THURSDAY, JUNE 13

Paris / Return

Disembark the ship early this morning for flights home.
Ship Details

Introduced in 2009, the 148-passenger AmaLyra quickly earned a “Best New River Cruise Ship” distinction for comfort and style. Stateroom amenities include Entertainment-On-Demand, featuring free high-speed Internet access, unlimited Wi-Fi, movies, music and English language TV stations; climate-controlled air conditioning; and an in-room safe. Additional comforts and conveniences include a sauna, whirlpool, massage and hair salon, a stylish lounge, and specialty coffee station. With a walking track on the Sun Deck, a fitness room and a fleet of onboard bicycles to use ashore, as well as healthy menu choices, you’ll have all you need to stay active and healthy while sailing one of Europe’s great rivers.
