Activity Level 3:

A LITTLE MORE TO IT

Many of the cities and towns being visited were founded centuries ago, and the terrain is rugged. Therefore, a fair amount of walking along narrow cobblestone streets, stone floors or uneven and/or slippery terrain and climbing several flights of stairs (some without railings) is to be expected. Walking excursions often cover distances of at least one mile and are approximately three hours in length.

Inside, view the imposing monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here in 1902 from Havana, Cuba, and the world’s largest altarpiece, a masterful gilded woodcarving created over the course of 44 years by Flemish craftsman Pierre Dancart. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco performance on board the ship.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20
Portimão / Portugal
Basking on Portugal’s sun-washed southern coast, the province of the Algarve was settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans, and later ruled by the Moors. Today, their heritage remains in its distinctive architecture and flavorful regional cuisine. Intrepid 15th- and 16th-century Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery to Asia around Africa before triumphantly returning to Lisbon.

En route to Lagos this morning, stop to admire Ponta da Piedade, a group of famous coastal limestone rock formations and cliffs known for both their size, some as tall as 60 feet, and beauty, their canyon coloring a stunning contrast against the translucent waters of Lagos Bay.
