HARVARD

Alumni Travels

The 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle stands proudly at the convergence of three great sea lochs.'

Across the mist-enshrouded peaks and hauntingly beautiful glens of Scotland and through the unsurmounted natural beauty of Norway's mighty fjords, the legacies of Viking and Celtic clans are entwined in rich traditions and compelling archaeological heritage. From dynamic Glasgow to charming Bergen, cruise for seven nights aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star LE DUMONT-D'URVILLE, featuring only 92 Suites and Staterooms, each with private balcony. Immerse yourself in the Norse history of the tradition-steeped Shetland Islands, view the untamed shorelines, serrated sea stacks and crystal-clear waters of the Orkney Islands and learn more about the islands' fascinating Neolithic history from renowned archaeology expert, Nick Card. Traverse the Tolkienesque lands of the Scottish Highlands where granite mountains loom over emerald pastures. Join us on this extraordinary journey and experience some of the world's most unspoiled landscapes in Scotland and Norway, with opportunities to visit up to five UNESCO World Heritage sites. Navigate the ancient shipping lanes of the Vikings and gain an intimate perspective of Norway's spectacular mountain landscape aboard the Flåm Railway, one of the world's most scenic train rides.

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. Cruise lines and some other providers of services (as well as, potentially, some countries) require all passengers traveling on our programs to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well, passengers may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable) and other suppliers of services. Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

Activity Level 3:

UP FOR A CHALLENGE

Many of the cities and towns being visited were founded centuries ago, and the terrain is rugged. Therefore, a fair amount of walking along narrow cobblestone streets, stone floors or uneven and/or slippery terrain and climbing several flights of stairs (some without railings) is to be expected. Walking excursions often cover distances of at least one mile/1.6 km and are approximately three hours in length. Please be advised that the ship may either dock in port or tender ashore by small boat.

Study Leaders

Lizabeth Cohen is the Howard Mumford Jones Professor of American Studies in the Department of History and a Harvard University Distinguished Service Professor. At Harvard, Cohen teaches a wide range of courses in twentieth-century U.S. History, urban history, the built environment, and public history. In addition to her deanship at the Radcliffe Institute, Cohen has contributed to Harvard's institutional life in many ways, including as chair in the Department of History; as faculty director of the Charles Warren Center; as a member of the FAS Faculty Council, FAS Resources Committee, the Harvard College Curricular Review Steering Committee in 2004, and the Harvard Task Force on Women in 2005; and as cochair of the Common Spaces Committee from 2008-18.

Herrick Chapman is Professor of History and French Studies at New York University. As a modern European historian, he writes and teaches principally on the social, economic, and political history of France and the French empire since the nineteenth century. Much of his work focuses on the uses of state authority in French society, and from that optic he has written on labor relations and business enterprise, gender and the welfare state, shopkeepers and anti-tax rebellions, and racism and discrimination, among other subjects.

View the Ness of Brodgar, a mysterious compound rivaling the scale of the Acropolis

Schedule by Day

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY,
JUNE 2 AND 3

U.S./Glasgow, Scotland

Depart the U.S. The next day, arrive in Glasgow, where the indelible mark of Viking conquest still permeates the culture, and embark the Five-Star LE DUMONT-D'URVILLE. (D)

SATURDAY, JUNE 4

Fort William/ Scottish Highlands

The legendary Scottish Highlands and their striking, rugged scenery have inspired countless stories with their enchanting and mysterious allure. Begin your day in bucolic Glenfinnan; view the Glenfinnan Viaduct, immortalized by the Hogwarts™ Express in the Harry Potter film series, and see the Glenfinnan Monument, commemorating the Jacobite Highlanders that Bonnie Prince Charlie rallied against King George II in 1745.

Stop along the Caledonian Canal to view Neptune's Staircase, an incredible feat of engineering when it was built in the early 1800s and the longest staircase lock in Britain. Travel along castle-dotted shores enshrouded with myth and legend to Glencoe, hailed as one of Scotland's most scenic glens, partially owned and preserved by the National Trust for Scotland.

SUNDAY, JUNE 5

Kyle of Lochalsh/ Portree, Isle of Skye

Visit 13th-century Eilean Donan Castle, named for a sixth-century Irish Saint. Colonel MacRae, of Clan MacRae, restored this icon in 1932 and established a clan museum. Travel across heather-covered moors and through the beautiful Cullin Mountains en route to the scenic capital of Portree, situated along the unforgettable coastline of ethereal Isle of Skye. (B,L,D)

MONDAY, JUNE 6

Kirkwall, Orkney Islands

This morning, the director and head archaeologist of the Ness of Brodgar site, Nick Card, will provide his keen insights about this ancient compound that lies outside of Kirkwall. His research and fieldwork are internationally regarded, both in the archaeology field and by the press. Steeped in Viking heritage, the largest Orkney Island, known as Mainland, has been designated a UNESCO World Heritage site for its concentration of prehistoric treasures defined as the Heart of Neolithic Orkney. Nearly 1,000 years before Giza's pyramids were built and over 500 years before Neolithic humans raised Stonehenge, Stone Age inhabitants of this archipelago, dating from 3200 B.C., erected the Ness of Brodgar, a compound rivaling the scale of the Acropolis—demonstrating advanced technological prowess and Neolithic artistry.

Walk among the nearby stone monoliths of the Ring of Brodgar, raised more than 4,000 years ago in the circle of a henge.

See the ceremonial Stones of Stenness en route to the settlement of Skara Brae, where more than 5,000 years ago, it was inhabited by an early Orcadian culture known for decorative arts and sophisticated craftsmanship. Thousands of years later, the Vikings established the port town of Kirkwall on Mainland, leaving behind the 12th-century Saint Magnus Cathedral, known as the "Light of the North."

Hear the classically haunting sounds of a Scottish bagpiper as you reboard the ship. This evening, a Scottish storyteller weaves traditional tales that have been handed down by word of mouth for generations. (B,L,D)

TUESDAY, JUNE 7

Lerwick, Shetland Islands

Explore the remote Shetland Islands, declared a Global Geopark by UNESCO for their geologically diverse landscapes and seascapes carved by prehistoric ice. Here, nature's colors and textures endlessly shift, and clamoring gannets and puffins crowd the dramatic rock cliffs.

Dock in Lerwick, Shetland's capital, and journey to the island's southernmost point, scanning the landscape for Shetland's famous ponies grazing on the lush grass-covered knolls.

The coastal town of Lerwick was founded as a marketplace for 17th-century Dutch herring fleets.

Journey through the fjordlands of Norway aboard the Flåm Railway, first proposed in 1871.

Visit Jarlshof, a tentative UNESCO World Heritage site deemed the zenith of prehistoric architectural achievement in Northern Europe. Multi-period remains span over 4,000 years of human history, including late-Neolithic stone houses, a Bronze Age village, an Iron Age broch and wheelhouse, Norse longhouses, a medieval farmstead and a 16th-century laird's house. (B,L,D)

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 8

Cruising the Norwegian Fjords/Flåm Railway

Norway's fjords and islands offer some of Europe's most beautiful coastal scenery, where sea mist and sunlight enhance the fjords' deep blues and the valley's lush greens. Cruise majestic Sognefjord, passing traditional farmsteads and villages flanked by mountains and glaciers.

This afternoon, climb aboard the Flåm Railway, one of the world's most scenic train rides. This masterpiece of Norwegian engineering—the steepest standard-gauge railway track in Europe, spirals 2,835 feet—opened to the public in 1940 and travels 13 dramatic miles through 20 tunnels to Myrdal's mountaintop station. Watch snowy mountains, cascading waterfalls—including the Kjøfossen—and intriguing hamlets unfold along this alpine branch of the Bergen Line. (B,L,D)

THURSDAY, JUNE 9

Bergen

Founded on a Viking settlement in 1070 and the Norwegian capital during the 12th and 13th centuries, Bergen was an important part of the Hanseatic League's trading empire from the 14th to mid-16th centuries.

The city's past can be felt in the beautifully preserved gabled buildings of Bergen's Bryggen, or the old wharf, a UNESCO World Heritage site surrounded by lush hills and fjords. Stroll the grounds of Troldhaugen, the summer home of famed Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg. Visit the Fantoft Stavkirke, a traditional 12th-century wooden stave church, noted for its durable post and lintel construction.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure in Bergen before the Captain's Farewell Reception on board the ship this evening. (B,L,R,D)

FRIDAY, JUNE 10

Bergen/U.S.

Disembark in Bergen and continue on the Wonders of Norway Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S. (B)

Scotland's Cultural Capitals

PRE-CRUISE OPTION

$995 per person, double occupancy

$1,495 per person, single occupancy

Stroll through 12th century Edinburgh Castle, a powerful national symbol with curving ramparts that define the city's romantic silhouette. In Edinburgh, discover the UNESCO-designated Old Town, a labyrinth of medieval passageways, the Royal Mile and the Neoclassical New Town, laid out in the 18th century. Explore the history of fascinating clans, medieval knights and royal intrigue in two of Scotland's great cities. Your tour of Glasgow includes a visit to its 12th-century cathedral, the only medieval church in Scotland to survive the 1560 reformation. Spend two nights in the ideally located, Five-Star WALDORF ASTORIA EDINBURGH – THE CALEDONIAN.

Wonders of Norway ♦ Copenhagen

POST-CRUISE OPTION

$2,595 per person, double occupancy

$2,995 per person, single occupancy

Immerse yourself in Norwegian landscapes and traditional Scandinavian culture on this exclusive five-night journey. Experience the majesty of the Norwegian highlands and ride through the stunning scenery of Europe's highest mountain plateau on the Bergen Railway. In vibrant Oslo, explore the stately Opera House and the unique Vigeland Sculpture Park. In the Danish town of Roskilde, visit its 12th-century, Gothic-style cathedral, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Enjoy an exclusively chartered cruise along Copenhagen's idyllic canals to see Christiansborg Palace, the Old Stock Exchange, Amalienborg Palace and the "Little Mermaid" statue. Accommodations are for four nights in historic hotels and one night aboard an award-winning Seaways ferry from Oslo to Copenhagen.

Terms & Conditions

AA&D Community Expectations: Harvard University Alumni Affairs & Development (AA&D) programs and volunteer opportunities respect the rights, differences, and dignity of others. Those taking part in AA&D activities, including travel programs developed by Harvard Alumni Travels for the Harvard Alumni Association (“HAA”), are expected to demonstrate honesty, integrity, and civility and are accountable for their conduct with University alumni, students, parents, volunteers, employees, and invitees. AA&D reserves the right to suspend services to—and to exclude from participation in AA&D programs—any person whose inappropriate behavior adversely affects the safety, well-being, and inclusion of community members.

CONTRACT: Harvard Alumni Association does not itself conduct tours, but instead partners with several different tour operators to offer a broad range of travel programs. Tour participants contract directly with tour operators, although HAA is available to act as a liaison with tour operators should participants have any questions or concerns. HAA is not responsible for performing any of the tour operator’s obligations. The tour operator for this program is Gohagan & Company based in Chicago, IL.

PROGRAM COST INCLUSIONS: Enrichment program of lectures and discussions; seven nights aboard LE DUMONT D’URVILLE; welcome reception and farewell dinner; all meals throughout cruise; complimentary alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages throughout cruise; all meals aboard ship; Wi-Fi internet access while on board (conditions permitting); taxes; transfers and luggage handling at airport/pier/hotel for guests whose arrival(s) and departure(s) coincide with the scheduled group transfers; all excursions and visits with experienced local guides outlined in itinerary; all gratuities to ship personnel, restaurant staff, local guides, drivers, and tour manager throughout.

PROGRAM COST EXCLUSIONS: International airfare from the U.S.; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air taxes; airport facility taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the “Inclusions” section; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than scheduled group transfer(s); passport fees; visas and fees for obtaining visas; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls, and internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation and baggage insurance; gratuities to hotel personnel, optional sightseeing excursions; meals and beverages not listed in the “Inclusions” section; and all other services not specifically mentioned in the “Inclusions” section. If this requirement is still in effect by the US Government, the Cost of the Antigen Test that is required for re-entry into the United States. Gohagan and Company will set up the actual Antigen Test, but the individual passenger will have to pay for the extra cost of the Antigen Test.

PROGRAM SIZE: LE DUMONT D’URVILLE can accommodate up to 160 passengers for this voyage. Harvard passengers will be joined by guests from the co-sponsoring institutions from Brown University, Case Western Reserve, National Trust, Northwestern, Swarthmore, UCLA, and the World Affairs Council, as well as potential independent travelers. HAA reserves the right to cancel the program, levy a small group surcharge, and/or send the program without a Harvard study leader. HAA retains the right to add staff members and/or invited guests to any group departures regardless of the stated group-size limitation.

RESERVATIONS, DEPOSITS, & FINAL PAYMENT: To reserve a space on this program, a $1,000 deposit is required per person. Reservations are acknowledged in order of receipt until the maximum enrollment has been reached. Final payment is due February 28, 2022 (95 days before departure), payable by credit card or check to “Gohagan & Company”. Participants will receive an invoice directly from Gohagan & Company for all subsequent payments after the initial deposit.

PARTICIPANT CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS: Notification of cancellation must be received in writing by the tour operator with copy to HAA from the participant. Deposits are fully refundable through 96 days prior to departure. Cancellations received between 95 and 61 days prior to departure will be assessed a cancellation fee of 50% of the trip cost; with the remaining 50% issued as a trip credit, usable on a future Gohagan & Company trip which commences on or before December 31, 2023. Cancellations received between 60 and 45 days prior to departure will be assessed a cancellation fee of 75% of the trip cost, with the remaining 25% issued as a trip credit. Cancellations received 44 days or less prior to departure will be assessed a cancellation fee of 100% of the trip cost. In addition, for bookings any applicable airline cancellation fees, optional excursions cancellation fees and administrative fees may apply.

TRIP INSURANCE: Neither HAA nor the tour operator, including all representatives, employees, and agents, will take responsibility for any costs or losses incurred or suffered by a participant, or a participant’s dependents or traveling companions before, during or after the tour. This includes, without limitation, cancellation or curtailment of the tour, emergency evacuation expenses, medical expenses, repatriation expenses, or damage/theft/loss of personal baggage, money, and goods. As noted below, neither HAA nor its tour operators shall be liable for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a nonrefundable airline ticket or for any other expenses incurred by tour participants in preparing for the tour.

HAA highly recommends the purchase of trip insurance to cover unforeseen trip interruptions, cancellations, lost baggage, and emergency medical assistance and evacuation. Participants may purchase trip insurance through any provider. HAA highly recommends the purchase of trip insurance to cover unforeseen trip interruptions, cancellations, lost baggage, and emergency medical assistance and evacuation. Participants may purchase trip insurance through any provider. HAA will provide information from one provider. Redpoint Resolutions, upon confirmation, which will detail available options. If a participant purchases a trip insurance policy from Redpoint Resolutions within a 14-day window, then the pre-existing medical conditions exclusion will be waived, and the participant will be eligible to purchase the “Cancel for Any Reason” upgrade. The 14-day window begins on the first day the participant’s trip deposits become non-refundable. For participants who utilize a trip credit to book the trip, the 14-day window starts the first day the participant is subject to financial penalty for cancellation, including full or partial loss of the trip credit. An insurance policy, when issued, shall constitute a contract only between the participant and the insurance provider. HAA will not intervene in any transactional issues or claim disputes between the participant and the insurance provider.

AIR ARRANGEMENTS: International airfare is not included in the cost of the program. The tour operator can assist you with your air arrangements. Neither the Harvard Alumni Association nor the tour operator accepts the liability for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable airline ticket. The air ticket when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the passenger and the airline concerned. Airfare is subject to change and availability and is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Operator.

WHAT TO EXPECT / PHYSICAL HEALTH: Due to the prevalence of SARS-CoV-2 (COVID-19), participants should anticipate rules and restrictions to be enforced at airports, on flights, and at country entry points, as well as protocols in place during the program to reduce the risk of COVID-19 transmission. Updates will be provided closer to departure. All participants must be in overall good health to participate in a HAA trip. All programs require physical independence and mobility: participants must be able to embark or disembark all conveyances used on the program alone or with minimal assistance from a traveling companion and must be able to climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Participants requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling any required equipment. Any physical or mental health condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be disclosed in writing prior to booking so that HAA and the tour operator may evaluate whether participation is feasible. All participants should consult with their doctor about whether they can meet the physical requirements of their trip and must complete and return any medical forms required by the tour operator.

Participants with dietary restrictions also must make these known to the tour operator well before departure, otherwise the tour operator may not be able to accommodate them. PREPARING FOR THE TOUR: Participants will be provided with comprehensive pre-departure travel information, including specific suggestions for packing.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY, PROGRAM, STAFFING & COSTS:

The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of HAA and the tour operator. HAA reserves the right to change program dates, staff (including study leader), itineraries, or accommodations as conditions warrant. HAA further reserves the right to cancel programs, levy a small group surcharge, send a program without a study leader and/or withdraw HAA sponsorship from a program. Please note that all participants are bound to the cancellation fee schedule and other terms and conditions of the program regardless of whether HAA takes any of these actions. Participants making deviations from the scheduled itinerary do so at their own expense. All prices quoted are based on prevailing fuel prices, airfares, and currency exchange rates in effect as of the date of this publication and are subject to change.

FAILURE TO OPERATE THE TOUR OR CANCELLATION OF THE TOUR BY THE TOUR OPERATOR:

If the tour operator fails to operate the tour or cancels the tour, except as a direct result of adverse weather conditions, strikes, local laws, hostilities, wars, terrorist acts, significant health concerns (such as epidemics or pandemics requiring significant travel disruptions), or other such causes beyond HAA and the tour operator's reasonable control (Force Majeure Events), then the tour operator shall refund all monies received from tour participants. If the tour operator's failure to operate the tour or cancellation of the tour is a direct result of a Force Majeure Event, then the tour operator may provide tour participants a refund consisting, in whole or in part, of credit toward future travel. Tours also shall be cancelled if the U. S. State Department, another U.S. government agency, or a relevant local government agency issues a statement within sixty (60) days of tour departure to the effect that American citizens or others should not travel except for essential reasons to any of the destinations on the itinerary for that tour. In such case, the tour operator will provide an alternate tour with a revised or substitute itinerary and may provide tour participants who choose not to travel on the alternate itinerary a refund consisting, in whole or in part, of credit toward future travel.

CURTALMENT OF THE TOUR BY THE TOUR OPERATOR:

If a tour is curtailed after it has begun, either as a direct result of a Force Majeure Event, or because the U. S. State Department, another U.S. government agency, or a relevant local government agency has issued a statement to the effect that American citizens or others should not travel except for essential reasons to the remaining destinations on the itinerary for that tour, then the tour operator will take immediate steps to end the tour early and assist tour participants with travel arrangements back to their homes or other final destinations. In such a case, the tour operator may provide tour participants a refund for the number of missed days on the original tour consisting, in whole or in part, of credit toward future travel. The calculation for any such refund shall take into account any non-recoverable prepayments, and any additional expenses incurred by the tour operator to wind up the tour early.

RESPONSIBILITY: The tour operator, its owners, and employees act only as agents for the various independent suppliers and contractors providing transportation, hotel accommodations, restaurants, and other services connected with this tour. Such travel, accommodations, and services are subject to the terms and conditions under which they are offered or provided, and HAA and the tour operator, along with their respective employees, agents, representatives, and assigns, accept no liability therefor. Neither HAA nor the tour operator assumes liability for any injury, damage, loss, accident, delay, or other irregularity which may be caused by the defect of any aircraft or vehicle or the negligence or default of any company or person engaged in carrying out or performing any of the services involved. Nor will HAA and the tour operator accept responsibility for losses, injury, damages, or expenses of any kind due to Force Majeure Events, other than as provided above. All services and accommodations are subject to the laws of the country in which they are provided. HAA and the tour operator reserve the right to make changes in the published itinerary whenever, in their sole judgment, they deem it necessary for the comfort, convenience, or safety of the tour participants. HAA and the tour operator may, in their sole judgment, decline to accept or retain any person as a tour participant. Baggage and personal effects are always the sole responsibility of their owners. The price of the program is given in good faith based on current tariffs and rates and is subject to change. Any increases in tariffs, exchange rates, or fuel prices will be passed onto participants. As part of the consideration and right to participate in a tour, each participant must sign this document and may be asked to sign a separate liability waiver and release form by the tour operator.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: HAA and the tour operator will not share participants' personal information with third parties or make it publicly available except as follows: participants' names, degree(s), home city, and email addresses may be included in the tour participant list that is distributed to tour staff and participants prior to departure; and relevant information about participants is shared with those contracted to provide tour services in the destination. Tour operators and their agents are prohibited from sharing or selling this information to other parties. Participants may opt out of sharing their email addresses with others on the tour participant list.

APPEARING IN PHOTOS: Photos from Harvard trips may be posted on photo-sharing web sites or on social networking sites. Your likeness may appear in some photos or videos, posted either by HAA or by other travelers, and these materials may be circulated worldwide. Trip photos also may be selected to appear in future Harvard Alumni Travels promotions; in such cases, HAA will attempt to notify the traveler in advance, but no compensation is available for appearing in a trip photo used for promotional purposes.

DISCLAIMER: Every reasonable effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information presented in this document. HAA is not responsible for errors in or damages resulting from the use of the information contained herein. Information contained in this document is subject to change.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK: Tour participants understand and agree that participation in the tour involves risks that include, without limitation, risks involved in travel; political, legal, medical, social, economic, and weather conditions; standards of design, safety, and maintenance of buildings, public places, and conveyances that may differ from those to which they are accustomed; and health and safety standards that may differ from those to which they are accustomed. Without limiting the foregoing, tour participants understand and agree that there are risks associated with the possibility of an epidemic or pandemic, the trajectory of which may be unpredictable, and that as a result of such an epidemic or pandemic, local and national governments may enact border, travel, and stay-at-home restrictions, and health care systems may become overwhelmed. Tour participants recognize that they may be subjected to potential risks, illnesses, injuries, and even death and confirm that they have made their own investigation of these risks, understand them, and assume them knowingly and willingly. Knowing the risks described herein, tour participants agree, on behalf of their family, heirs, and personal representative(s), to assume all risks and responsibilities surrounding their participation in the tour.

RELEASE AND INDEMNIFICATION: By signing below (or by checking the respective box on the on-line registration form), I certify that I am age 18 or older and that I have carefully read and freely signed these Travel Terms and Conditions on my own behalf and on behalf of all members of my party. To the maximum extent permitted by law, I release, hold harmless and agree to indemnify Harvard, and its officers, governing board members, faculty, staff, representatives, employees and agents, from and against any present or future claims, losses, liabilities, costs and expenses for injury to person or property, or for any other damage, which I may suffer, or for which I may be liable to any other person, related to my participation in the tour resulting from any cause, including but not limited to negligence on my part or on the part of any of the released parties.

I understand and agree that no oral or written representations can or will alter the contents of this document. I agree that this agreement shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (excluding its conflict of laws principles), which shall be the forum for any lawsuits filed under or incident to this agreement or the tour.

QUESTIONS: Please call Harvard Alumni Travels at 800-422-1636 or 617-496-0806, or email haatravels@harvard.edu.
