TRAVELS 2014

WATERWAYS OF RUSSIA
MOSCOW TO ST. PETERSBURG
ABOARD M.S. VOLGA DREAM

WITH HARVARD PROFESSOR JULIE BUCKLER

July 16-26, 2014
HARVARD STUDY LEADER

Julie Buckler, Professor of Slavic Languages and Literatures at Harvard works on the cultural heritage of imperial Russia. Buckler received her B.A. in Russian and East European Studies from Yale University and her Ph.D. from Harvard. She began her academic career at Harvard as a junior professor in 1996 and has been a tenured member of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences since 2003. She has been awarded fellowships by the American Association of University Women and the Davis Center for Russian and Eurasian Studies, and was a fellow at the Radcliffe Institute for Advanced Studies in 2006-2007. Buckler is now senior humanities adviser to the Radcliffe Institute, directing the humanities part of their Academic Ventures Program, which brings together scholars from across the University and around the world to foster multidisciplinary collaborations. She is also a principal investigator for a four-year Mellon Foundation grant on “Recontextualizing Urban Studies” (2013-2017). She just completed a term as chair of the Slavic Department.

Other study leaders joining this program include John Meffert, Architectural Historian with the National Trust for Historic Preservation; Robert Nelson, the Robert Lehman Professor of the History of Art at Yale University; and Dr. Carol Reynolds, Symposium Speaker for the Smithsonian Institution.

Scheduled guest speakers may be altered due to circumstances beyond our control. See General Information section.
EXPLORE THE GREATEST ARTISTIC, HISTORICAL, AND ARCHITECTURAL TREASURES OF CLASSICAL RUSSIAN CULTURE.

This comprehensive itinerary features several “Golden Ring” cities and opportunities to see nine UNESCO World Heritage sites along a scenic traversal of the rivers, lakes and canals that link the two great cultural capitals of Russia—Moscow and St. Petersburg, which are the “book-ends” of the program.

Begin in Moscow, the political and commercial capital of the world’s largest country. Board the exclusively chartered, 109-guest M.S. VOLGA DREAM for a cruise through the heartland of Mother Russia where the countryside is seemingly untouched by the 20th century. Visit 10th-century Uglich, medieval Yaroslavl, the 14th-century monastery near Goritsy, and the legendary open-air museum of Kizhi Island—all rustic remnants of Old Russia.

The program concludes with two nights in the deluxe ANGLETERRE HOTEL in splendid St. Petersburg, Russia’s “window on the West” and the majestic legacy of Peter the Great. This popular program, timed during mid-summer when days are long and pleasant, also features a rich, educational lecture program featuring Harvard professor, Julie Buckler and other guest speakers.

THIS IS A CO-SPONSORED PROGRAM.
WEDNESDAY, JULY 16
U.S.
Depart the U.S. for Moscow, Russia.

THURSDAY, JULY 17
MOSCOW, RUSSIA
Arrive in Moscow and meet your Travel Director. Transfer to the deluxe m.s. Volga Dream. The ship remains docked overnight on the Moscow River, which flows leisurely through the city that has embodied the heart and soul of Russia for over 850 years.

FRIDAY, JULY 18
MOSCOW
Explore Moscow’s cultural and historical treasures beginning with a visit to the Kremlin, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the imposing halls of this fabled “Citadel of the Czars.” Tour the Armory, the oldest museum in Russia, and see the authentic State treasures including the magnificently bejeweled Fabergé eggs commissioned by the Romanov czars.

Walk around infamous Red Square, a UNESCO World Heritage site where both Romanov czars and Soviet commissars have flexed their might and power. Admire the multicolored grandeur of the 16th-century St. Basil’s Cathedral, crowned with painted onion domes and soaring turrets. Stroll along the river to the Church of Elijah the Prophet, a masterpiece of local architecture located in the heart of the Old Town and filled with well-preserved frescoes. See the magnificent, fortified Monastery of the Transfiguration, founded in the 12th century.

After lunch, the ship cruises the Neva River, which flows majestically through the heart of the city.

Later, admire the passing scenery of a bygone era as you pass rustic family farms and quaint dachas, traditionally the seasonal cottages of Russia’s elite. From the tranquil village of Goritsy, catch glimpses of a bygone era as you pass rustic family farms and quaint dachas, traditionally the seasonal cottages of Russia’s elite.

Admire its cluster of red turrets capped with shimmering blue onion domes, and the elegant frescoes that adorn the inside. Continue to the stately five-domed Cathedral of the Transfiguration, built along the Volga River in 1713.

SATURDAY, JULY 19
LAKE ONEGA/SVIR RIVER/MANDROGI/LAKE LADOGA/NEVA RIVER
Cruise the sparkling Svir River between Lake Onega and Lake Ladoga, the largest freshwater reservoir in Europe, to Mandrogi, a small riverside village. Later, admire the passing wilderness of serene meadows and virgin pine and birch forests lining the shores and river banks of Lake Ladoga and the great Neva River.

This evening, enjoy a dinner that will include traditional Russian specialties followed by a specially arranged sampling of Russian vodkas.

THURSDAY, JULY 24
ST. PETERSBURG
Arrive in St. Petersburg, known as the “Venice of the North,” along the Neva River, which flows majestically through the heart of the city.

This morning, disembark the ship and transfer to Pushkin to visit Catherine the Great’s imperial compound of Tsarskoye Selo (Czar’s Village), a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour the elaborate Baroque palace, built in 1741.

1600 small islands, within sight of the beautifully untouched, pastoral, Karelian countryside, home to many ethnic Finns.

This afternoon, be on deck for the unforgettable approach to picturesque Kizhi Island, a UNESCO World Heritage site. This remarkable open-air museum is a treasure trove of 18th-century Karelian and north Russian wooden architecture. Admire the Church of the Transfiguration, an architectural masterpiece featuring 22 cupolas built completely of wood without a single nail!

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23
LAKE ONEGA/SVIR RIVER/MANDROGI/LAKE LADOGA/NEVA RIVER
Cruise the sparkling Svir River between Lake Onega and Lake Ladoga, the largest freshwater reservoir in Europe, to Mandrogi, a small riverside village.

Later, admire the passing wilderness of serene meadows and virgin pine and birch forests lining the shores and river banks of Lake Ladoga and the great Neva River.

This evening, enjoy a dinner that will include traditional Russian specialties followed by a specially arranged sampling of Russian vodkas.

THURSDAY, JULY 24
ST. PETERSBURG
Arrive in St. Petersburg, known as the “Venice of the North,” along the Neva River, which flows majestically through the heart of the city.

This morning, disembark the ship and transfer to Pushkin to visit Catherine the Great’s imperial compound of Tsarskoye Selo (Czar’s Village), a UNESCO World Heritage site. Tour the elaborate Baroque palace, built in 1741.

ST. PETERSBURG/U.S.
Continue on the St. Petersburg Post-Program Option, or transfer to the airport for your flight to the U.S.

ST. PETERSBURG

Enjoy a specially reserved entrance and tour of the State Hermitage Museum, former palace of Catherine the Great and repository of one of the world’s oldest and greatest art collections, riddled only by the museum’s ornate interiors. View the priceless collection of 19th- and 20th-century French Impressionist and Post-Impressionist works as well as 74 masterpieces “lost” in a storeroom during World War II and rediscovered in 1995.

This afternoon, skim over the Gulf of Finland by hydrofoil to Petrodvorets, the splendid summer palace and parklands commissioned by Peter the Great, now a UNESCO World Heritage site. Attend the Farewell Reception and dinner this evening in the hotel.

ST. PETERSBURG

See the extraordinary Amber Room: six tons of solid amber, deftly carved and framed in gold leaf, once deemed the “Eighth Wonder of the World.” Stripped and confiscated by the Nazis in 1941, the Amber Room was meticulously reconstructed in 2003 in honor of St. Petersburg’s 300th birthday.

On the afternoon tour, explore the city’s historic center, a UNESCO World Heritage site whose legendary landmarks are scattered across more than 100 islands linked by more than 300 bridges.

St. Petersburg’s main thoroughfare, Nevsky Prospekt, showcases exquisite examples of Russian Baroque and neoclassical architecture. See the beautiful Church of Our Savior on Spilled Blood (Church of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ), built on the site of Emperor Alexander II’s assassination; see the Admiralty tower; and visit 19th-century St. Isaac’s Cathedral’s dazzling interior of malachite and lapis lazuli—its striking golden dome is one of the glories of the city’s skyline. Tour the city’s oldest edifice, the Peter and Paul Fortress, built in 1703 to guard the country’s only outlet to the Baltic Sea. The impressive Baroque Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul contains the tombs of czars from Peter the Great to Nicholas II, the last of the Romanovs.

Check into the deluxe ANGLETERRE HOTEL for an evening at leisure, or attend an optional Russian ballet or music performance (performance schedule permitting).

FRIDAY, JULY 25
