

HARVARD

Alumni Association

LEGENDARY TURKEY

OCTOBER 6-20, 2020

Exotic sights, scents, and sounds reign in this fascinating land where Europe and Asia meet. From Istanbul, magnificent “Empress of the World,” to ancient ruins, stunning landscapes, and the dramatic Turquoise Coast where you board privately chartered “gulet” yachts for a distinctive four-day voyage, Turkey engages and beguiles, offering an unparalleled small group experience.

GROUP SIZE: 12 to 24 guests

PRICING:

Per person double occupancy:

- $5,292—Air inclusive from Boston, New York, Washington, DC (including airline taxes and fees)
- $4,395—Land only
- $795—Single supplement

STUDY LEADER: To be announced

SCHEDULE BY DAY

B=Breakfast, L=Lunch, D=Dinner

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6

DEPART U.S. FOR ISTANBUL, TURKEY

This evening depart the U.S. on flights to Istanbul.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7

ARRIVE ISTANBUL

Upon arrival in Istanbul, transfer to the Divan Istanbul hotel, located near Taksim Square, the heart of modern Istanbul. Please note that as guests' arrival times may vary greatly, no group activities or meals have been planned for this day. You are free to explore the area around the hotel or simply relax after your overseas flights.

Dinner tonight is on your own.

Overnight: Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8

ISTANBUL

Spend your first day in Istanbul touring the legendary city. This morning, walk along the lively, pedestrian Istiklal Street, lined with boutiques, galleries, restaurants, and late Ottoman-era buildings. Travel across the Golden Horn, the main inlet feeding into the Bosphorus, to see the acclaimed mosaics and frescoes at Kariye Museum (formerly the Chora Byzantine church), and then take a panoramic drive along the historic walls of Istanbul's Old City.

Later, drive to the Spice Bazaar area, overlooking the Golden Horn, to visit Rustem Pasha, a small, intimate mosque with Iznik tiles set in beautiful floral and geometric designs. From here, take a short walk to Istanbul's renowned Spice Bazaar filled with exotic spices, nuts, and dried fruits from around the world. After lunch on your own here, take a private cruise on the Bosphorus, one of the most strategically significant waterways in the ancient world, and still the dividing line between Europe and Asia.

Late this afternoon return to the hotel. Enjoy a welcome dinner of traditional Turkish fare at a local restaurant.

Overnight: Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus (B, D)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9

ISTANBUL

This morning, cross over Galata Bridge and tour Old Istanbul, home of splendid mosques and palaces. Visit the ancient Roman Hippodrome with its 3,500-year-old obelisk and continue on to the marvelous Blue Mosque, topped by six slender minarets. Inside is one of the world's great collections of blue Iznik tiles (20,000 of them), along with 260 stained glass windows.

Next, visit the renowned Museum of Turkish & Islamic Art housing artifacts from the Ottoman (14th to 20th centuries), Seljuk (11th to 13th centuries), and earlier periods beginning in the 8th century. In the restored Palace of Ibrahim Pasha, the museum displays both everyday items and ancient pieces of art including carvings of wood, glass, and stone.

After enjoying lunch together at a local restaurant, continue to famed Hagia Sophia, which was the world's grandest Christian cathedral when it was built in 537 CE. It was converted into a mosque in the 15th century and is now a museum.

Return to the hotel late this afternoon and enjoy the rest of the day at leisure. Dinner tonight is on your own.

Overnight: Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus (B, L)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10

ISTANBUL

This morning, visit Topkapi Palace, dramatically set on a promontory with remarkable views over the Bosphorus. This vast palace, the home of Ottoman sultans for 400 years, once housed as many as 4,000 royals, courtiers, and hangers-on.

Next, visit the Basilica Cistern, the marble-columned underground chamber that provided water to Istanbul in antiquity. Fed by nearly 12 miles of aqueducts and supported by 336 columns, the cistern once held more than 21 million gallons of water, and provides the setting for the climactic scene in Dan Brown's novel Inferno.

The next stop is the vast Grand Bazaar, one of the world's largest covered markets. Some 5,000 shops and stalls compete for shoppers' attention, selling jewelry, pottery, leather, Turkish delicacies, and much more. The remainder of the afternoon and evening is free for independent exploration. You have your choice of many excellent restaurants for lunch and dinner on your own.

Overnight: Hilton Istanbul Bosphorus (B)

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11

ISTANBUL / GALLIPOLI / TROY / ASSOS

Early this morning, begin the full day of travel southward from Istanbul. Your first stop is Gallipoli, set along the northern coast of the Aegean Sea, where in 1915 Allied troops were defeated by the Turkish army led by Lieutenant-Colonel Mustafa Kemal, better known as Atatürk. Pay your respects to the large number of those who gave their lives here as you visit ANZAC Beach Cemetery.

Next, travel across the Straits of the Dardanelles to Troy, once believed to have existed only in Homer's epic poem. Heinrich Schliemann discovered the real Troy in the 1870s. Excavations have revealed the remnants of at least nine civilizations here dating back 5,000 years. After an exploration of the ruins and relics here, continue on to Behramkale, ancient Assos, where you will spend the night.

Please note: Because of the Nazlihan Hotel's small rooms and limited space, you will need to bring a smaller, soft-sided "carry" bag for your overnight stay in Assos. This additional bag should be small and flexible enough to fit inside your larger checked luggage.

Overnight: Nazlihan Hotel (B, L, D)

MONDAY, OCTOBER 12

ASSOS / PERGAMUM / IZMIR

This morning, depart for Pergamum, once one of the richest small kingdoms in Asia Minor and where one of the world's largest collections of books was housed. Here, visit the magnificent Acropolis, which contains the ruins of Pergamum's acclaimed 200,000-volume library, so large it challenged the world's greatest library in Alexandria, Egypt. In fact, the Egyptians were so afraid that Pergamum would attract scholars away from Alexandria that they cut off the area's supply of papyrus, forcing the invention of pergamen (Latin for parchment) made from animal hides rather than papyrus reed.

Along with the library, the Acropolis boasts a great theater seating 10,000 and the marble-columned Temple of Trajan. Below the theater lie the ruins of the Temple of Dionysus and the Altar of Zeus in a marvelous setting shaded by evergreen trees. Much of Pergamum has been lovingly restored; it is now considered one of the premier ancient sites in Turkey.

After enjoying lunch in a typical Turkish kebab restaurant, travel to Izmir and check into the hotel, where the group dines together tonight.

Overnight: Swissôtel Grand Efes (B, L, D)

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13

IZMIR / EPHEBUS

Today visit Ephesus, perhaps the world's best-preserved ancient city. In Roman times, Ephesus was the provincial capital of Asia, with a population of 250,000 at the height of its glory. An important Christian community arose here, and Ephesus was visited by St. Paul, who later wrote one of his epistles to the Ephesians. Perhaps its greatest claim to fame is the fact that Ephesus once housed the Temple of Diana, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Today the magnificently preserved ruins attract visitors from across the globe.

A full day of touring here includes the immense theater that holds 24,000 people and is still used today. Walk along the Sacred Way, where the rich once lived and where an ingenious water and sewer system was constructed beneath paving stones of marble. See the Temple of Hadrian, a Corinthian-style building with the head of Medusa on the porch to keep away evil spirits, and admire the Library of Celsus, which once held 12,000 ancient scrolls.

Following the visit of Ephesus proper, visit the acclaimed Terrace Houses, the “houses of the wealthy” located on the slopes of Bulbul Mountain. These hillside excavations provide a revealing look at family life during the Roman period.

Stop for a late lunch in the beautiful, rustic village of Sirince before returning to Izmir late this afternoon for an evening at leisure. From your well-located hotel you have your choice of several local restaurants all within a short walking distance.

Overnight: Swissôtel Grand Efes (B, L,)

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14 IZMIR / GÖCEK / EMBARK YACHT

Today continue your journey south, stopping along the way at Sultankoy rug cooperative to see a demonstration of the ancient art of carpet weaving. Break for a fresh and organic al fresco lunch using ingredients from Sultankoy’s own farm and orchards.

Continue on to Göcek, arriving late this afternoon in the serene port town set at the most inland point of the Gulf of Fethiye. Here, board your eight-cabin gulet, a replica of a traditional Turkish fishing boat. Today’s gulets are built with modern comforts in mind, containing small but cozy cabins with private bath and shower, public areas, and broad decks in an area approximately 85 feet long and 21 feet wide. Beautiful craftsmanship combined with ancient artistry makes the gulet the perfect vessel in which to cruise the waters of the Turquoise Coast.

After settling in to your cabin, enjoy your first dinner on board, prepared by the ship’s crew with fresh local ingredients. If the weather cooperates, tonight may be a fine evening to join others sleeping on deck under the stars.

Overnight: Gulet Yacht (B, L, D)

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15 AGA LIMANI / CLEOPATRA BATHS

Your route for the next few days is along the coastline that Mark Antony is said to have given Cleopatra as a wedding gift. Named for the brilliant color of its waters, the Turquoise Coast is nature’s gift to all those who travel here. With the scent of eucalyptus perfuming the air, and forested mountains as a backdrop, begin your “Blue Voyage” with an optional three-hour hike from the hidden cove of Aga Limani to Lydea, a little-known Greco-Roman site.

The hike concludes at the Sunken Baths of Cleopatra, built in a breathtaking inlet by Mark Antony for the last Egyptian pharaoh. Please note that parts of this hike can be strenuous, and the trail has a fair amount of gravel and rock; be sure to consult with your tour director if you have concerns about your ability to participate safely on this hike. Those who prefer a less strenuous day may wish to stay on board the gulet as it sails to the Sunken Baths to meet up with the hikers. There’s plenty on board with which to keep occupied, including games, cards, or simply admiring the lovely scenery.

Overnight: Gulet Yacht (B, L, D)

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 16 GÖCEK / DALYAN

This morning, disembark in Göcek Marina and make the short drive to Dalyan, an environmentally protected area where you board a small skiff for a trip through an intriguing maze of channels.

At the Lake of Koycegiz, view your first Lycian rock tombs perched high on the hills above you. These relics, which stretched along the Mediterranean coast from Koycegiz in the west to Antalya in the east, are the few remaining artifacts of this great culture.

After lunch in a local restaurant, drive to your gulet in Fethiye Bay where you anchor for the night. Tonight dine aboard the gulet.

Overnight: Gulet Yacht (B, L, D)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17 GEMILER ISLAND / KAYAKOY

Today, sail to your next anchorage, Gemiler Island, where you disembark for a tour of the 6th-century Byzantine monastery here.

After lunch on board, disembark and drive to the Greek “ghost town” of Kayakoy, deserted after World War I and the Turkish War of Independence. Residents abandoned approximately 1,000 stone houses here. Explore the town and its two churches, which still retain some of their painted decoration and mosaic floors.

Later, return to your gulet for dinner together and remain anchored in Gemiler tonight.

Overnight: Gulet Yacht (B, L, D)

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18 FETHIYE / DISEMBARK / ANTALYA

This morning, sail to Fethiye, where you disembark, bid farewell to the gulet crew, and board a motor coach for the drive through the Taurus Mountains to Antalya. Reach this seaside city and bustling hub of the “Turkish Riviera” in time for lunch. This afternoon, visit the acclaimed Archaeological Museum, whose exhibits highlight the history of the Mediterranean and Pamphylia regions of Anatolia.

Dinner tonight is on your own and the evening is at leisure.

Overnight: Akra Barut (B, L)

MONDAY, OCTOBER 19 ANTALYA / PERGE

This morning, set off for a tour of the once-thriving Roman city of Perge, which reached its pinnacle during the era of Alexander the Great. Among the outstanding ruins here are the ancient shopping arcade, the awe-inspiring 12,000-seat stadium, and a 15,000-seat theater.

Later, return to Antalya for a walking tour of the Kaleici (Old Town), with its stone walls, Old Harbor, and winding lanes. View the impressive Hadrian’s Gate with its three arches, built to honor Emperor Hadrian for his visit in 130 CE and the Yivli Minaret, whose fluted column is a symbol of the city.

The remainder of the afternoon is at leisure before gathering for a farewell dinner at a local Turkish restaurant.

Overnight: Akra Barut (B, D)

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 20 DEPART FOR U.S.

Transfer to the airport early this morning for your connecting flight to the U.S. (B)

OPTIONAL EXTENSION: CAPPADOCIA

OCTOBER 20 -24, 2020

Itinerary details coming soon.