Who is eligible for a Harvard Alumni Association (HAA) travel scholarship?
To be eligible you must be enrolled as an undergraduate student and receive Harvard College grant assistance.

Is this just a free trip?
No, this is an educational travel program designed to introduce you to the HAA while you learn about your destination and enjoy spring break. If you win a scholarship, the HAA will pay for your land trip costs, but you will have some responsibilities as a scholarship participant.

What kinds of responsibilities will I have?
The HAA requires that you travel with the Harvard group for the full duration of the program. Within two weeks (14 days) of return to the United States, we ask you to submit to HAA a trip report (roughly two to four pages; double spaced) and 25 photos. You are also required to sign and submit a consent form and liability waiver.

How much is a scholarship worth?
A scholarship is worth the full “land only” cost of the spring break tour. Please note that you are responsible for your flight arrangements to and from the trip destination.

What about my airfare?
If you win a scholarship but cannot afford the airfare to get to the trip, you may wish to contact the financial aid office to inquire about the possibility of a loan.

How many scholarships are awarded?
There will be one scholarship awarded per HAA spring break trip in 2014.

How do I apply and when is the deadline?
To apply, please complete the form on the following page and submit it to the HAA no later than January 28, 2014.

How does HAA decide who is awarded a scholarship?
We decide based on the content in your application essay and your need (as validated through the financial aid office).

Can I still go on the trip if I don’t win a scholarship?
Yes! Each HAA spring break trip has a special discounted price available for Harvard College students. Check the trip details online for specific price information.
