A brochure for trip cancellation insurance through our recommended provider, Ripcord Rescue Travel Insurance, will be provided by Harvard Alumni Travels upon confirmation. The pre-existing medical conditions exclusion is waived if the insurance is purchased within 14 days of initial deposit. Neither Harvard Alumni Travels nor our tour operators, including their representatives, employees and agents, will take responsibility for any costs, losses incurred or suffered by the guest, or guests' dependents or traveling companions, with regards to, but not limited to, cancellation or curtailment of the tour, emergency evacuation expenses, medical expenses, repatriation expenses, damage/theft/loss of personal baggage, money and goods. Nor do they accept liability for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable airline ticket or other expenses incurred by tour participants in preparing for the tour.

AIR ARRANGEMENTS: International airfare is not included in the program cost. In order to provide the greatest flexibility to participants, there are no designated group flights for this program. If requested, Criterion Travel can recommend a travel agent to arrange flights for this departure. Neither Harvard Alumni Travels nor the tour operator accepts the liability for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable airline ticket. The air ticket when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the passenger and the airline concerned.

WHAT TO EXPECT / PHYSICAL HEALTH: All participants must be in generally good health. Any condition that may require assistance or special medical attention must be reported at the time of your reservation. All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motor coaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion, embark or disembark Zodiac tender vessels with assistance from ship's crew, and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

Travelers do not have to participate in all the scheduled activities, except when traveling to the next destination.

In order to make the most of what each locale has to offer, shore excursions and time spent in Berlin and Vienna will be active, with a substantial amount of walking. During the cruise, most days include a half-day shore excursion with the balance of the day spent onboard, cruising to the next destination, enjoying the lecture program or the riverside scenery. Walking tours can be as long as three hours, covering one to two miles. Much of the walking will take place at historic sites and in older quarters, where streets are often cobblestoned and uneven. Most historic city centers are only accessible on foot, so be prepared to walk in from where the coach disembarks passengers, which can sometimes be a few hundred yards. Many historic buildings do not have elevators, and you'll occasionally encounter steps without handrails.

The Crystal Mahler has an elevator between decks 2 and 3, providing access to guestrooms, restaurants, and Palm Court lecture room. The elevator does not extend to the sun deck, nor to the fitness center and treatment rooms on deck 1.

Participants with medical issues and/or dietary restrictions must make them known to us well before departure, and impairments regarding mobility must be disclosed prior to booking. If you have any questions about the level of activity of this program or your ability to participate, please call Harvard Alumni Travels at 800-422-1636.

PREPARING FOR YOUR JOURNEY: You will be provided with comprehensive pre-departure travel information, including specific suggestions for packing, a recommended reading list and amenities pack.
