AIRFARE: The tour operator can refer you to a travel agent that will assist with your air arrangements. Neither Harvard nor the tour operator accepts the liability for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable airline ticket. The air ticket when issued shall constitute the sole contract between the passenger and the airline concerned.

PROGRAM SIZE: This tour, (exclusively developed for HBS alumni), is limited to 34 participants on a first-come, first-served basis. The minimum group size is 20. Should the total number of participants fall below 20, a price surcharge may apply. If it is necessary to levy a small group surcharge, the tour operator will notify the participant 60-90 days prior to trip departure. If the surcharge results in an increase of more than 10% of the tour cost, the participant may cancel the booking within 14 days of notification of the surcharge and obtain a full refund.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS: You must be in good physical and mental health. Any physical condition requiring special attention, diet or treatment must be reported in writing when the reservation is made. By registering and paying a deposit for a trip, the trip participant certifies that he/she does not have any mental, physical or other condition or disability that would create a hazard for himself/herself or other trip participants. All trip participants must complete a Medical History Form to be signed by a qualified physician. If the Medical History Form is not received within 90 days of the trip departure or within 2 weeks of trip registration (if trip registration was received less than 90 days prior to departure), we reserve the right to treat the reservation as cancelled. We also reserve the right to decline to accept - or to restrain from further participation - any person it judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the trip activities, or any person whose actions or deportment it judges unsuitable for group travel. We will enact this right when such action is determined to be in the best interest of the health, safety, and general welfare of the trip group or an individual trip participant. A refund based on the cost of any unused land services already paid for is the limit of Harvard and Global Adrenaline, Inc.’s responsibility in such a case.

RESERVATIONS, DEPOSITS, & FINAL PAYMENT: To reserve a space on this program, a $1,000 deposit is required per person, which is non-refundable. Please call HAA Travels at 800.422.1636 or 617.496.0806 or fill out and mail or fax the registration form. Reservations are acknowledged in order of receipt until the maximum enrollment has been reached. Final payment is due 90 days prior to trip departure. If a reservation is made 90 days or less before the trip departure, then the full payment is due at time of booking. If the final payment is not received within 90 days of trip departure, we reserve the right to treat the reservation as cancelled.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS: The tour operator must strictly adhere to its cancellation policy to offset costs incurred prior to the commencement of the program, which may include but are not limited to: advance payments to land operators; ship charters; communication expenses; development/promotional expenses and the loss of time that might have permitted resale of reserved space.

All cancellations must be made in writing (mail or email) to the offices of the Harvard Alumni Association. At the time of written notification of cancellation is received, the following penalties will apply:

Over 90 days prior to departure, loss of $1,000.00 deposit. 0 to 90 days prior to departure, 100% of trip price.

More information regarding trip cancellations: Global Adrenaline, Inc. reserves the right to cancel any trip prior to departure for any reason whatsoever, including insufficient signup or logistical problems that may impede trip operations. The refund of all trip price payments received shall release Global Adrenaline, Inc. from any further liability. A trip with insufficient signup would normally be cancelled a minimum of 90 days prior to departure. Global Adrenaline, Inc. must normally make substantial payments to its suppliers (hotels, transportation companies, etc.) far in advance of the scheduled trip departure date. If a trip is cancelled due to force majeure (e.g. acts of God, war, labor strikes, earthquake, flooding, etc.) Global Adrenaline, Inc. will promptly refund the portion of the trip price not already advanced to suppliers and use its best efforts to recover and refund the balance as promptly as possible. However, Global Adrenaline, Inc. does not guarantee recovery of any of all of the advance payments made, and its use of best efforts to recover these payments will not include the institution of any legal proceedings in foreign jurisdictions. Global Adrenaline, Inc. is not responsible for any expenses incurred by trip participants in preparing for a cancelled trip (e.g. non-refundable advance purchase air tickets, visa fees, medical expenses, equipment, etc.) or for any additional arrangements should the trip participant have embarked prior to the scheduled group departure date.

TRIP INSURANCE: We highly recommend the purchase of trip cancellation insurance. An application for trip cancellation insurance will be provided by the HAA upon confirmation. The pre-existing medical conditions exclusion is waived if the insurance is purchased within 15 days of initial deposit. Neither the Harvard Alumni Association nor our tour operators, including their representatives, employees and agents, will take responsibility for any costs, losses incurred or suffered by the guest, or guests’ dependents or traveling companions, with regards to, but not limited to, cancellation or curtailment of the tour, emergency evacuation expenses, medical expenses, repatriation expenses, damage/theft/loss of personal baggage, money and goods. Nor do they accept liability for any airline cancellation penalty incurred by the purchase of a non-refundable airline ticket or other expenses incurred by tour participants in preparing for the tour.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL & EVACUATION INSURANCE:
As a service to our travelers the HAA automatically provides emergency medical evacuation insurance. At the time of publication, this policy has the following schedule of benefits: $5,000 Accident/Sickness Medical Expense; $200,000 Emergency Medical Evacuation & Return of Remains; $3,000 Emergency Reunion; $5,000 Accidental Death and Dismemberment

This insurance covers travelers for the HAA-sponsored program dates, but not for any extensions or independent travel plans. You will receive detailed information on this coverage approximately 30 days prior to your departure. Should you also purchase the Travel Insurance Select offered to you at confirmation, it will provide you with benefits which are additional to those stated above. This insurance is secondary to any insurance the traveler may already have.

CHANGES IN ITINERARY AND COSTS: The itinerary is subject to change at the discretion of both Harvard and the tour operator. We reserve the right to change a program’s dates, staff (including study leader*), itineraries, or accommodations as conditions warrant. Deviations from the scheduled itinerary are at the expense of the individual. All prices quoted are based on prevailing fuel prices, airfares and currency exchange rates in effect as of the brochure printing and are subject to change.

* In the event of a cancellation by the Harvard study leader, we will attempt to notify all travelers as soon as possible. We will make every reasonable effort to find a replacement study leader, but our ability to do so will depend on the availability of appropriate lecturers and proximity to the departure date. If we are not able to provide an appropriate substitute we will make every reasonable effort to provide other educational opportunities or program enhancements to ensure a viable travel experience. Please note that all participants are bound to the cancellation fee schedule and other terms and conditions of the program regardless of whether or not a replacement study leader is found.

More information regarding price increases: The prices listed on Global Adrenaline, Inc.’s trip documents are subject to change because the information has often been published more than a year in advance. While every effort will be made to carry out the program as planned, the itinerary as described is subject to modification and change by Global Adrenaline. The program cost is based upon current airfares, tariffs, and currency values in effect April 2014. While Global Adrenaline will use its commercially reasonable best skills to maintain the listed price, tour costs are subject to change. If it is necessary to levy a surcharge, notification will be given 60-90 days before departure. If the surcharge results in an increase of more than 10% of the tour cost, a participant may cancel the booking within 14 days of notification of the surcharge and obtain a refund from Global Adrenaline of all deposits and other payments.
