WHAT TO EXPECT / PHYSICAL HEALTH: All participants must be in generally good health. Any condition that may require assistance or special medical attention must be reported at the time of your reservation. All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motor coaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion, embark or disembark Zodiac tender vessels with assistance from ship's crew, and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

Travelers do not have to participate in all the scheduled activities, except when traveling to the next destination.

This is a moderately strenuous program that is at times physically demanding and busy, and participants should be fit and in active good health. In order to make the most of what each locale has to offer, shore excursions and pre-cruise time spent in Athens will be active, and travelers will often be spending much of the day off the ship. These adventure-filled days are balanced by relaxing time spent cruising at sea, with the opportunity to enjoy the ship's amenities and the full lecture program and youth activities. There will be some coach travel, with up to three miles of walking on some days. Walking tours can be as long as three hours, often in the warm sun, and much of the walking will take place at archaeological sites, often on hilly and/or uneven terrain, and in older quarters, where streets are often cobblestoned and uneven. Some buildings do not have elevators. Transportation to the sites is in comfortable air conditioned motor coaches.

During the cruise, travelers will be required to board Running on Waves via a metal gangway with rope handrails and get into/out of bobbing tenders for some shore excursions. On board the ship, moving around requires climbing or descending relatively steep staircases and opening heavy sea doors, including, but not limited to, the five Main Deck cabins that have exterior access and heavy sea doors for safety. It is important that travelers are comfortable walking on a rocking surface. Be aware that the ship does not have an elevator on board.

Participants with medical issues and/or dietary restrictions must make them known to us well before departure, and impairments regarding mobility must be disclosed prior to booking. If you have any questions about the level of activity of this program or your ability to participate, please call Harvard Alumni Travels at 800-422-1636.

PREPARING FOR YOUR JOURNEY: You will be provided with comprehensive pre-departure travel information, including specific suggestions for packing, a recommended reading list and amenities pack.

EMERGENCY MEDICAL & EVACUATION

INSURANCE: As a service to our travelers Harvard Alumni Travels automatically provides basic emergency medical evacuation insurance. This policy has the following schedule of benefits: $5,000 Accident/Sickness Medical Expense; $200,000 Emergency Medical Evacuation (to the nearest appropriate facility based on medical necessity as determined by local attending physician) & Return of Remains; $3,000 Emergency Reunion; $5,000 Accidental Death and Dismemberment. This insurance is secondary to any insurance the traveler may already have. This insurance covers travelers for the Harvard-sponsored program dates, including optional group extensions, but not for any independent travel plans. You will receive detailed information on this coverage approximately 30 days prior to your departure. Should you also purchase the Ripcord Rescue Travel Insurance plan offered to you at confirmation, it will provide you with benefits which are additional to those stated above.
